These students are mostly from the families of His Highness' Sardars and Jahagirdars. Rao Bahadur Diwan examined the Rajkumars and the two companions in the month of October 1910 and found them to have completed Marathi Standard IV and English Standard II. He also examined the other students in the three classes. The Rajkumars take daily riding, swimming and gymnastic exercise. They are good cyclists and are undergoing training of Polo. 5. Census.

13. In compliance with Government Resolution No. 5227 dated 30th July 1909, regarding the inclusion of Native States in the Census of 1911, it was resolved to take the decennial Census of 1911, along with the Imperial Census of India, on the 10th of March 1911. Rao Bahadur R. R Shirgavkar, Chief Revenue Officer Kolhapur, was entrusted with the preliminary arrangements as in the case of last two Censuses and was designated as Superintendent of Census. It was also settled that the Feudatory Jahagirdars were to submit the required information to the Darbar Officer (Superintendent of Census Kolhapur Principality) who compiled it a long with the information for the Kolhapur State proper for transmission to the Provincial Superintendent of Census operations Bombay. As the work of Census increased and the Chief Revenue Officer had often to go out of the station to inspect the Talukas and Mahals, the Superintendent was in June 1910 given an assistant-Mr D. N. Phansalkar who was designated Deputy Superintendent of Census. Mr. Phansalkar did this work in addition to his own duties as Devasthan Officer. Mr. Phansalkar was afterwards relieved of the Devasthan Office work and carried on the work of preliminary and final enumeration in Kolhapur proper as well as the Feudatory Jahagirs. All general instructions regarding the Census were this time embodied in a code. The code was translated into vernaculars for the use of such Charge Superintendents as could not read English. Kolhapur proper was divided into 13 charges according to the Political divisions of the State. The Mamledar or Mahalkari was appointed as Charge Superintendent of the Taluka or Mahal as the case may be. The Feudatory Jahagirs were divided into 13 charges. The Torgal Jahagir was included in Katkol Mahal charge as it then came under the management of the Darbar owing to the sudden death of the late Senakhaskhel of Torgal. Mr. Phansalkar was also made a Gazetted Officer for the purpose of forwarding by wire the provisional totals of the census and for submitting the District summary for the whole of the Kolhapur Principality. All the S. M. C. States agreed to have the work of Abstraction and Tabulation done here and so Mr. Phansalkar was appointed Deputy Superintendent for Kolhapur and S. M. C States and his pay was raised to Rs. 300 p. m. from the commencement of the work of Abstraction and Tabulation. The whole expenditure is to be distributed among the S. M. C. States and the Feudatory Jahagirs under the Kolhapur Darbar in proportion to the population returned. The population of the Kolhapur Principality decreased from 9,10,011 to 8,33,441. The decrease was mainly due to the prevalance of plague and cholera during the last decade.

6. Chief events of the year.

King Edward Memorial Fund.

14. A public meeting representing all classes and creeds in the Kolhapur territories, was held in the Town Hall on 8th November 1910 under the Presidentship of Major F. W. Wodehouse, Political Agent Kolhapur and S. M. Country (now Resident Kolhapur and Political Agent S. M. C. States) supported by His Highness the Chhatrapati Maharajsaheb. Therein it was resolved that a fitting memorial should be raised in Kolhapur in honour of the Late His Most Gracious Majesty King Edward VII, Emperor of India. Accordingly it was decided that the memorial should take the form of an institution to promote the welfare of the Agricultural population of the State. A Lectureship for the spread of agricultural knowledge among the Rayats of the State by affording them facilities for agricultural experiments and demonstrations and by such other means as the Committee may recommend with a view to develop and popularise improvements in agriculture. In accordance with the resolution Meherban Pirajirao Bapusaheb Ghatge C. I. E., C. S. I. Jahagirdar of Kagal senior was elected President and Rao Bahadur R. V. Sabnis as Vice President Also an executive committee was formed with Rao Bahadur R. R. Shirgavkar as Chairman. To this fund every Jahahgirdar and Sardar and every loyal subject in H. Hs'. territory has contributed with alacrity according to his means. The funds collected up to the end of July last amounted to Rs 24,000 and some Rs 15,000 more are expected. The Darbar has promised to contribute a good round sum to the fund.

Contributions to the Bombay Presidency King Edward Memorial Fund and All India Memorial Fund.

15. His Highness was pleased to contribute Rs 5,000 to the Bombay Presidency King Edward Memorial Fund, and Rs 5,000 to the All India Memorial Fund. At the kind suggestion of H. E. the Viceroy and Governor General of India, His Hisghness consented to accept gratefully the Vice-patronship of the All India Memorial Fund offerred by the Committee.

Ceremonies on the accession day.

16. In honour of the accession of His Most Gracious Majesty King-Emperor, George V to the throne on the 9th of May a salute of 101 guns was fired. The State flag remained at mast head until evening and was half masted again from the following morning. Grant of remission of sentences to certain prisoners in jails in the state was made as a measure of clemency in honour of the accession to the throne in accordance with rules and custom. The copies of the Proclamation and Declaration in Vernacular, of His Most Gracious Majesty King George V King of Great Britain and Irland and Emperor of India were distributed in all the villages of the Principality and read out to the pupils in all schools. Similar course was adopted in the case of the letter of His Majesty the King Emperor of India to the Princes and Peoples of India.

17. The 20th of May was observed as a solemn day throughout the Principality being the funeral day of His Late Most Gracious Majesty King Edward VII in England. All State offices and schools were closed and the subjects abstained business as far as possible on that day. Prayers were held in all temples, His Holiness the Shankaracharya of Karvir's Math and in all mosques. Sixty-eight minute guns, corresponding with the age of His Most Gracious Majesty were fired at Kolhapur. As the last gun was fired the flag was dropped at the sunset

18. On account of the premature death of the Jahagirdars of Kapshi and Torgal on 15th July and 1st October 1910, the management of the Jahagirs had to be taken by the Darbar, subject to the joint supervision of the Political Agent Kolhapur and S. M. Country.

Withdrawal of administrative powers of the Sarlashkar Bahadur.

19. For several years past, the Sarlashkar Bahadur was practically absent from his Jahagir and staying in alien jurisdiction in the interests of his health. As it was found that his prolonged absence, in spite of repeated warnings, had a deteriorating effect on the Jahagir Treasury and on the efficiency of the administration, it was thought advisable to withdraw the administrative powers of the Jahagirdar. And with the consent of the Political Agent Kolhapur and S. M. Country, the management of the Jahagir was assumed by the Darbar on 12th July 1910.

Decision of the Secretary of State for India about tenure of 6 villages forming part of the Kagal Junior Jahagir.

20. The long pending question of the tenure of the 6 villages forming the Kagal Juniar estate was finally settled during the year by the Secretary of State for India who upheld the decisions of the Governments of India and Bombay and the Darbar, to the effect that the villages were held on Deshmukhi tenure and ruled that such tenure was not incompatible with the possession of higher rights and titles and its admission would not derogate from the position enjoyed by the Jahagirdar under the British guarantee secured to him by the treaties and confirmed by long custom.

Withdrawal of additional criminal powers of the Jahagirdars of Vishalgad and Ichalkaranji.

21. The additional powers in criminal matters, conferred upon the Jahagirdars of Vishalgad and Ichalkaranji in 1903 and those including dispensation from Darbar supervision as High Court conferred in 1905 were withdrawn in January 1910.

Decision of Government in the matter of a separate Police force for the Himat Bahadur Jahagir.

22. The question of a separate Police force for the Himat Bahadar Jahagir was decided by government rejecting the memorial of the Jahagirdar (Himat Bahadar) in October 1910.

The title of C. S. I. conferred on Meherban Pirajirao Bapusaheb Ghatge C. I. E. on the New Years Day.

23. On the New year's day, the title of the Companion of the Star of India was bestowed on Meherban Pirajirao Bapusaheb Ghatge, Jahagirdar of Kagal Senior. The Star was presented by His Excellency, Sir George Clarke, Governor of Bombay, in a Darbar held at Poona on the 27th of June 1911. His Excellency spoke in high terms of the Jahagirdar's untiring endeavours to promote the industries of Kolhapur and of the great assistance he has been rendering to His Highness in the construction of the irrigation work at Dajipur.

Books proscribed.

24. As it was thought unsafe for the Darbar as well as the British Raj to have seditious books, pamphlets and photos &c. in the Kolhapur Principality, 132 books pamphlets &c. were proscribed that were considerd seditious and declared to be so from time to time by Government.

7. General review of the year.

General Review.

25. This year the rainfall was nearly normal in all parts of the State. The monsoon made a good beginning in the western parts and consequently the Kharip crops sown in that part were in a good condition. The June and July rains were not sufficient in parts of Shirol and Raibag and consequently the sowing operations in those parts were resumed rather late. The August rain was sufficient in the eastern parts for the sowing of Rabi crops but the fall in the later months being scanty and untimely the Kharip as well as the Rabi crops suffered to some extent, the average out-turn being 40 to 50 per cent. The out-turn of the principal food-grains was not below the average. The area taken for cultivation increased by nearly 1,000 acres. But the area under irrigation decreased by nearly 12,000 acres. The decrease was chiefly due to insufficient water in wells and other sources of water. The prices of staple-food grains remained abnormally high except in harvest days as in the last year and consequently the rayots could pay off State dues easily. There was a decrease in the number of crimes and also in original civil suits. The number of Registration transactions fell by nearly 600. Cattle disease (Rinder-pest) prevailed in some parts of the Panhala Taluka but the type was not severe. On the whole the Agricultural stock was adequate and in good condition. The condition of the cultivating and labouring classes was fair. There was no emigration. Artizans and weavers did well. Mortality from plague showed a slight increase. Consequently there was a rise of 2·3 per mille in the death rate of the Principality. There was an increase of births by nearly 1,200 or 1·3 per mille. The educational returns exhibited a decrease in progress owing to the closing of schools in plague days. On the whole the condition of the people was satisfactory.

60, The total number of convicts admitted during the year was 245. Of these 84.2 per cent were Hindus, 13 per cent Mohamedans and the rest belonged to other religions. The net profit realized deducting the cost of contingencies &c. amounted to Rs. 217. The decrease in gross earnings was due to the fact that the factory work remained closed for nearly four months on account of plague and that some of the prisoners skilled in the factory work were sent to Radhanagari for work.

Expenditure.

66. The total expenditure of the Central Jail amounted to Rs. 14,875 against Rs. 15,277. The gross earnings per prisoner were Rs. 41 against Rs, 32 and the cost per head was Rs. 96 against Rs. 109.

The decrease will chiefly be seen in deeds of mortgage, in sale deeds and miscellaneous deeds.

Financial results.

77. The gross receipts of the year fell from Rs. 39,761 to Rs. 36,836 and the expenditure from Rs. 7,786 to 7,256. The net profit was Rs. 29,582 against Rs. 31,975 last year.

Kolhapur Municipality.

80. Raosaheb B. V. Jadhav M. A., L.L. B. continued to be in charge of the Kolhapur City Municipality. The decrease in receipts was due mainly to non-payment of the instalments of Tolld-duties and house-tax in proper time on account of plague. The decrease in expenditure was due to the fact that less was spent on repairs of the dam of the Kalamba tank and to debts and deposits being checked. The closing balance was Rs. 1,13,266 against Rs. 94,394 of tha last year. Rs. 29,512 have been deposited in the Huzur Treasury and Rs. 73,697 in the Bombay Bank.

There are 366 public stand pipes erected in the city at an average distance of 300 feet. 1011 houses are provided with Kalamba tank water at the owners' expense and the amount of the water-tax realized during the year was Rs. 8,639. Though the number of private pipes increased the decrease in the realization of the water-tax was due to the fact that most of them were stopped on account of the people leaving their houses and going into the huts owing to plague.

Fires.

85. There were 12 calls to fires. The total loss of property through fire was Rs. 860 against Rs. 2,735. The fire brigade staff was prompt in rendering assistance required.

Public health.

86. The total mortatily for the year increased from 1,234 to 1,916 last year. The increase was due to plague which numbered 896 against 16 of the last year. The number of births registered during the year was 1,007 against 1,384 in the preceding year

District Municipalities.

Income and expenditure.

87. The number of District Municipalities in the Kolhapur Principality was 8. CHAPTER IV.-PRODUCTION AND DISTRIBUTION.

1. Agriculture.

1. The principal crops raised in the Principality are Jwari, Bajri, Rice, Wheat, Cotton, Tobacco, and Sugarcane &c.. Crops grown in the State.

2. The total cultural as well as cropped area increased by about 1 per cent during the year. The area more than once cropped exceeded the average by about 17 per cent and the last year's figure by 12 per cent. The current fallow decreased by about 2 thousand acres during the year. The areas in acres under principal crops as compared with the average for five years and the last year's figures are given in the subjoined statement:— Cropped area.

3 The area under cereals exceeded the average by 3 per cent but declined by about 1 per cent below the area of the previous year and it was mainly due to the insufficient rains in the months of May and June. The deficiency in the above Increase and decrease.

area is however made up by an increase of 14 and 6 per cent in the non-food crops and pulses respectively. There was a rise of 3 thousand acres under the jwari crop and it seems that owing to the irregular nature of the monsoon the tendency of the farmers to grow crops requiring less moisture prevails everywhere in the Principality. The foreign variety of ground-nut which requires less moisture is widely grown in the State and hence there was an increase of about 10,000 acres under oilseeds. The cultivation of Tobacco and cotton too showed an increase this year as they are valuable crops and command a good market. The area under Sugercane fell by about 6 per cent which was the result of deficient water in wells.

Irrigated area.

4. The irrigated area of the State proper was 17,421 acres showing a decline of about 12,458 over the last year's figure. The percentage to the net area cropped fell from 4 to 2·8. The fall in the percentage was due to scantiness of rain in July and August which is necessary to improve the water supply in wells, tanks and other sources.

Water supply.

5. The number of Pacca wells decreased from 11,052 to 10,668 while that of Kachha wells rose from 878 to 962. The fall in Pacca wells is chiefly seen in Panhala, Gadhinglaj and Bhudargad Talukas. It rose by 81 in Alte Taluka. In the case of Kachha wells the rise was in Bhudargad Taluka.

2.—Plantation.

Coffee.

6. The old trees of coffee 4,462 in number and planted in 3 acres 38 gunthas yielded an outturn of 242 lbs. against 178 lbs. of the last year. Out of this produce 58 lbs. were sold during the year and the amount realized was Rs. 44 only.

Cardamom.

7. Cardamom planted in 12 gunthas in the Panhala gardens yielded 12 lbs. during the year- Out of it 4 lbs. were retained for plantation and the remaining quantity was sent to the Huzur. There were no plantations in Bhudargad Taluka this year.

Tea.

8. The area under tea crop grown in the Panhala gardens increased from 6 acres 21 gunthas to 7 acres 36 gunthas and the number of plants from 15,627 to 19,187. The quantity produced from the crop was 212 lbs. against 171 lbs. of the last year. Out of these 91 lbs. were sold and the amount realized was Rs. 69 only.

Agave.

9. Cultivation of agave plants was made during the year under the supervision of the District Officer S. D. The area of plantation increased from 200 acres to 350 acres. New plantation was made at Kudutre in Radhanagari Mahal in about 150 acres. As the plants did not attain full growth till the close of the year there was no extraction of fibre this year. Rs. 600 were spent during the year to keep up the plantation and watch.

3.—Agricultural Experiments.

Crops grown on the farm.

10. The range of crops grown on the farm attached to the Rajaram High School was the same as in the previous year. Owing to the uncertainty of the rain-fall at the outset of the last monsoons some Paddy-seed was sown in dust-bed. The crop did not grow so well as it does here in the usual method. The quantity of ground-nuts sown in a stiff soil, thoroughly mixed with tank-mud was greater and of better quality. Sugarcane cultivation was made in a different method from the usual. The ground was prepared by improved plough and village manure spread over it. Furrows were made sufficiently deep and wide. Tag rotation was adopted and fish refuse and Karanja cake manure was applied. The produce was one and a half times greater even though the farm soil is less retentive. Sample plots of cold weather crops gave better results as the late rains were favourable last year.

Experiment on cabbage crop.

11. Kerosine emulsion was tried on insects that attack the seedings of cabbage crop. It gave good results.

Receipts and expenditure.

12. The actual expenses on the farm were Rs. 997 against Rs. 1,071 and the receipts Rs. 1,024 against Rs. 1,074.

4.—Agricultural Stock.

Heads of cattle.

13. The number of heads of cattle during the year under report and the year preceding it are shown in Appendix XX Consecutive Enclosure No. 20. There was an increase of 5·5 per cent in the total number of cattle this year. There was a decrease of 11·1 per cent on the head of mares over last year's figure and 13·4 per cent on colts and fillies. Of other animals bullocks, cows, buffaloes, horses, asses, and goats there was increase in every item. Ploughs with 2 bullocks and 4 bullocks rose in number by 2,294 and 1,005 respectively. Riding carts were 2,067 against 1,454 and loading ones 17,418 against 17,635 in the previous year.

5.—Breeding Operations.

State Paddock.

14. The total number of animals in the State Paddock at the beginning of the year was 191. Births numbered 3 and 223 more were admitted for breeding and rearing purposes, thus making a total of 246. Of these 28 died, 6 transferred to the Risala and 17 to thePaga and 16 deducted for breeding purposes. Thus there was a balance of 179 at the close of the year of which 30 were mares, 2 Stallions, 5 Donkeys, 15 Colts and fillies, 17 mules, 7 Teasers and geldings and 103 Sheep.

Mule breeding.

15. During the year horse-breeding was altogether stopped and mule-breeding commenced. 26 mares were served by Donkey Stallions, out of which 9 were successful, 9 unsuccessful and 8 aborted.

Camel breeding.

16. The Camel herds in the State increased this year by 42 camels of which 19 were males and 23 female camels. Thus the total number of animals in camel herds in the State was 317 during the year.

2. Weather and Crops.

Note on the weather for the year 1910–1911.

South – west monsoon.

17. This year the monsoon commenced on the 23rd of June and lasted for about two weeks after which there was a break of about 3 or 4 weeks. August rains were, however, more than the average and the fall in September was just equal to it. There was a deficiency of the monsoon rains in all parts and it varied from 30 to 50 per cent but the fall was well distributed and thus on the whole sufficient for the crops.

North-east monsoon.

18. The showers in October were in all parts below the normal. In November too the fall was subnormal everywhere. There was no rain in December.

Temperature at Kolhapur.

19. The mean temperature for the year under report was 75° being less by 2°·1 over the last year's figure. May was the hottest month of the year, its mean temperature being 85°3 and December the coldest month, its mean temperature being 68°5 which is less than that of the last year's figure by 2°. The mean temperature of the remaining months was within 6° to 10° of the average of the year. The mean maximum and minimum temperatures of the year as recorded by the maximum and minimum thermometers were respectively 83°·1 and 60°·5 against 79°·2 and 63°·2 of the preceding year The highest temperature recorded during the year was 99° on the 17th of May and the lowest was 44° on the 17th of December 1910.

2.—Out-turn of Crops.

20. The following table gives the average out-turn of the principal crops by percentages (100 denoting a normal crop, one valued at 12 annas in the rupee):—

Name of Taluka, Mahal, or Jahagir.	Kharip.								Rabi.

Ichalkaranji	75	50	75	67	....	86	....	60	....	60	50	75	75

From the above it will be seen that the Kharip crops yielded on the whole a pretty good harvest except in Raibag and Katkol Mahals. The rabi crops yielded generally a good harvest except in Shirol, Raibag and Katkol.

3.—Prices.

21. The prices of food grains fluctuated lightly in some localities but on the whole maintained the high rates of the previous year, remaining considerably above the normal. The average quantity of Jwari purchaseable per rupee was less by 1 lb. in Raibag, Malakapur and Ajra; was more by 3 lbs. in Katkol and elsewhere the prices were almost identical with those of the previous year. Bajari was sold cheaper by 1 lb. at Ajra and dearer by 5 lbs. at Hatkalngda; elsewhere the prices of bajri were nearly the same as those of the last year. Rice was sold cheaper by a pound at Karvir, Gargoti and Raibag and dearer by a pound at Panhala, Katkol, Malakapur, Bavada and Kagal while in other places it was sold at the same rates as in the previous year. Nagli was sold cheaper by 2 lbs. at Karvir, Bavada and Ajra and by 3 lbs. in Gadhinglaj and Gargoti and dearer by 2 to 3 lbs. in Panhla, Raibag, Kagal and Ichalkarnji. The rate of Nagli was 32 lbs. in Katkol where it is not generally sown. Wheat fared better and it was sold at 25 per cent more. The out-turn of cotton was much less than that of the previous year but the prices rose by 33 per cent owing to greater demand. The prices of Jagree remained stationary.

4.—Wages.

22. Wages during the year showed no tendancy to fall, most of the talukas and Jahagirs maintaining the high rates prevailing in the previous year. The skilled as well as unskilled labourers were able to find sufficient employment on Shahupuri works and the tank works at Fejivade. The increase in the rates of wages is chiefly due to the increased demand for labour and the high prices of food-grains.

3. Forests.

23. The area under Reserved and Protected Forests remained the same viz. 380 and 180 square miles. Area.

24. During the year of report there were altogether 109 cases of Forest offences against 132 last year. Of these 5 were sent to the Criminal courts and the rest were disposed of departmentally. The total amount of fines imposed was Rs. 1,028 against Rs. 1,652 last year. Offences.

25. The number of forest fires was 38 against 20 and the area burnt was 1,158 acres against 791 last year. The estimated damage caused by these fires was worth Rs. 47. Fires.

26. There is a plantation at Nandgaon in Peta Panhala under the control of the Forest Department. About 70 lbs. of tea were produced there during the year which was all sent to the Huzur Khasgi Khate. Tea plantation.

27. The collection of the Hirda crop fell from 24,684 Khandis to 11,488 Khandis the decrease was due to less out-turn, while the income derived there-from fell from Rs. 1,13,528 to Rs. 1,06,717. Hirda crop.

28. The total income from forests fell from Rs. 2,39,364 to Rs. 1,23,016 and the expenditure from Rs. 1,25,789 to Rs. 21,663. This year the work of collecting the Hirda and of carrying it to the station was given to a contractor instead of being done departmentally. Financial results.

4. Manufacture and Industries.

29. In spite of the recrudescence of Plague all over the city of Kolhapur which took 6 months to disappear, the work of the erection of the machinery of the "Shri Shahu Chhatrapati Spinning Mills" was kept on going. It has now been completed. The mill commenced working since February last. Out of the 10,000 shares 5,483 shares have been sold up to the end of March 1911 and the rest are still to be sold. The number of spindles working was 11,388. The daily average number of mill-hands was 217. The total value of out-turn (for 2 months) was Rs. 15,564. The yarn turned out of this mill is approved of in the market a nd a good demand is expected. Shri Shahu Chhatrapati Spinning and Weaving Mills Kolhapur.

Ginning factories at Shirol Road and Chinchali.

30. The Ginning Factory at the Shirol Road Station was closed till the end of the year.

The Ginning Factory at Chinchli is reported to have worked satisfactorily during the year.

Ginining factory at Gadhinglaj.

31. A new Ginning Factory was established at Gadhinglaj by Luxman Babaji Koregaonkar. The factory worked for nearly four months during the cotton season from February to June. Financial Department and its work.

1. The Diwan is the chief controlling authority of Finance in this State corresponding to the Accountant General in the British territory. All sorts of bills and accounts excepting those relating to the P. W. Department are first examined by the Daftardar who works in the capacity of Assistant Accountant General and then submitted by him to the Diwan's office for payment or adjustment. The bills and accounts relating to Public Works Department and the J. G. Technical School, Kolhapur, are audited in the Diwan's office by the Auditor specially appointed for the purpose. Amounts of pensions to be given to retired officers of the State are settled in the Dafatardar's office. The final accounts of the State (both Jamabandi and Nagadi) are also compiled there from the monthly and yearly accounts received from the Huzur and Taluka treasuries. Post audit system is not fully followed here. Bills are first checked and then payments made and hence amounts paid through mistakes have seldom to be recoverd.

The increase under Excise was due to larger receipts of stillhead duty and that under Education is attributed to the adjustment by writing off of High School Patti due from some of the Jahagirdars . Arrears of Infantry contributions were received from the Feudatories this year and hence the rise under the head Military. The increase in collections of Jahagir and Saranjam revenues accounts for the rise under Alienations.

The decrease under Land Revenue, Local Funds was due to less arrears being recovered during the year, that under Railways was due to nonreceipt of the 2nd instalment of the earnings of the Kolhapur State Railway, that under Forest to the smaller collections of myrabolames and that under Law and Justice to less amount realized from the sale of movable property. The fall in Toll receipts by about 10,000 counterbalanced by the rise of Rs. 6,000 due to the sale of dead stock articles accounts for the decrease under P. W. D.. The decrease under Debts and Deposits was due to less adjustments of accounts made during the year.

The noticeable derceases were under Forest (87,000), Public Works Department (1,83,000), Military (32,000) and Miscellaneous (20,000). The total number of lepers in the Asylum at the end of the year was 51 (20 males and 31 females) against 116 (57 males and 59 females) last year. All of them belonged to the Kolhapur territory. The decrease in the number was due to the fact that the British government have founded such Asylums in almost every district for lepers residing in it. Therefore, the lepers belonging to the British territory left this place to join the asylum near their homes. They were all Hindus. The daily average attendance was 85·3 against 120 last year. The total expenditure decreased from Rs. 5,648 to Rs. 3,732. The decrease in expenditure was mainly due to most of the lepers from British Territory having left the asylum. The cost of maintainence per leper per month fell from 3-14-8 to 3-8-0. The health of the lepers was good.

8. Inoculation.

32. During the last out-break of plague in the rainy season, evacuation of the town was almost impossible. Inoculation with Haffkins' Plague Prophylactic was the only preventive measure adopted. His Highness the Chhatrapati Maharjasaheb encouraged inoculation by sanctioning 3 days' special leave to state servants and a reward of 8 annas per head to menial servants as well as members of their families who got themselves inoculated, and annas 4 to non-servants. His Highness set an example by getting himself inoculated with all his household staff. The operations were performed by sub-assistant surgeons in the A. E. Hospital by turns. Operations were most successful as no bad after effects followed in a single case. The total number of operations performed was 4,118 including Kolhapur Infantry and Central Jail, of which only 4 attacks and 2 deaths were reported. The expenditure incurred on that account amounted to Rs. 844 inclusive of the sum of rewards Rs. 462. Inoculation proved effective in reducing the number of attacks and deaths by plague and the epidemic soon subsided. The good effects of inoculation were strikingly illustrated this year both in Kolhapur and outside at the A. E. Hospital. The whole staff of servants with their families were inoculated with the exception of an old woman. The latter was the only person in the group that died of plague. Most of the men in the Kolhapur Infantry got themselves inoculated with the result that the infantry was immune while in the adjoining village of Bavda at a distance of $\frac{1}{4}$ of a mile or so people were dying in numbers. They had similiar experience at the Central jail. The convicts in the jail submitted to the operation. But the under-trial prisoners refused to do so and plague broke out among the latter. All the inoculated prisoners were immune. This ocular demonstration had a striking effect and all the under-trial prisoners at once came round and underwent the operation. There was no further case of plague in the Jail. At Kagal a Feudatory Jahagir under Kolhapur, one of the officers with anti-inoculation views refused to get himself or his family inoculated. He however consented to the inoculation of a stranger who rented in his house. The officer and his wife and child died of plague. The stranger living in the same house was free. Such were some of the vivid experiences of the good effects of inoculation while there has not been a single complaint from the inoculated of any injury or harm done, by the operation.

33. In the Vishalgad Jahagir 3 and in the Kagal Senior Jahagir 229 operations were performed during the year. All of them proved successful. As there was no appearance of plague in the Bavada Jahagir no inoculation was performed. In the Ichalkaranji Jahagir though there had been plague no inoculation was resorted to.

In rounding off figures in several places fractions exceeding one-half have been reckoned as equivalent to one and those equal to or less than one-half have been left out of consideration; in consequence, a slight discrepancy may sometimes occur in additions and subtractions, especially in the case of sums of money.

PART II.

CHAPTER 1.—GENERAL & POLITICAL.

1. Area, Population &c.

1. The Kolhapur Principality lies between 17° 10′ 45″ and 15° 50′ 20″ North latitudes and 74° 44′ 11″ and 73° 43′ 10″ East longitudes. The whole territory has an area of 3,217·1 square miles of which 2,124·6 belong to Kolhapur Proper and the rest to the Feudatory Jahagirs under the State. The population of the whole Principality as returned by the Census of 1911 is 8,33,441. The gross revenue on an average is Rs. 57,45,219 a year.

2. Administration.

His Highness' personal rule.

2. The year under report is the 18th in succession of the personal rule of His Highness Sir Shahu Chhatrapati Maharaj G. C. S. I., G. C. V. O., G. C. I. E., L. L. D. M. R. A. S. &c., Maharaja of Kolhapur. His Highness enjoyed good health and made several tours to Bombay, Poona, Delhi and other places outside Kolhapur and tours of inspection in the State.

Council.

3. Important matters are generally referred by His Highness for opinion to the Council consisting of the Diwan, the Chief Judge and the Chief Revenue Officer under the Presidentship of the Diwan. Opinions in 57 cases were given by the Council during the year. On account of the heavy work in His Highness' court a bench consisting of Rao Bahadur V. B. Gokhale B. A., LL. B. Chief Judge and Professor R. N. Apte, M. A., LL. B., was formed to hear appeals and give opinions thereon. 58 appeals (criminal as well as civil) were heard and disposed of by the Bench during the year.

3. His Highness' Household.

4. The two Maharaj-Kumars continued their education in the Yuvaraj School under the tuition of two graduates and 4 other teachers In the month of February 1912 Rao Bahadur Diwan examined them and found them to have completed Marathi Standard IV and English Standard III. There was also another class of His Highness' Sardars' Kumars which too was examined and the students were found to have completed Marathi standard IV and English standard I. All due care was taken for the physical development of the two Kumars. They take daily riding, swimming and gymnastic exercises. Their names were during the year enlisted in the International Correspondence School of England and regular instruction in the course of this School was imparted to them. Weekly examinations of that course were conducted in the Yuvaraj School and answers to the test examination questions given by the Maharaj-kumars were sent by post to the General Manager of the above institution. As settled before the two Maharaj-Kumars with their 3 companions left Kolhapur for England (on 11th May 1912.) accompained by the Jahagirdar of Kagal (Senior) and Rao Bahadur Diwan to prosecute their studies in England.

Distribution of Royal Proclamation.

18. His Highness had sanctioned a liberal sum to carry out the grand programme of the series of functions which were to be celebrated in honour of the great Coronation Darbar. Copies of the Royal Proclamation in English, Marathi and Canarese had been sent ahead to every village, in sealed packets to be opened and read in Darbars at the Head Quarters and assemblies of people in village chawdies at midday. Portraits of Their Majesties had also been supplied to all the towns and villages for being exhibited to the people on the occasion and to be hung up afterwards in a prominent place in the Chawdies.

Appointment of committees.

19. For the Capital of His Highness, a special programme of ceremonies was drawn up on a very extensive scale. Committees were appointed to organise and look over the several functions which, owing to the tact and energy of the Committees, were brought to a most successful issue.

Decorations of buildings.

During the progress of the parade, a salute of 31 guns was fired from His Highness' battery.

Children's fete.

22. The School-boys' fete was arranged in the Khasbag Maidan on the morning. For this purpose a procession of the portrait of Their Majesties seated in a howda on a caparisoned elephant was formed which was headed by some four thousand boys from all the English and Vernacular schools in the city and the suburb Shahupuri, marching in orderly rows. The tremendous moving concourse of thousands of happy, cheerful faces of boys in gala dress, with coronation medals on their breasts, waving red, blue and green flags amidst the chorus of National Anthem presented a most lively spectacle, such as was never seen in Kolhapur before. On reaching the Maidan, the boys were entertained with sweetmeats.

23. Girls from all the schools in the city were assembled in the Ahilyabai Girls' School. Ladies from respectable families in the town were invited to take part in the ceremony. The bright-coloured dresses visible on every side presented a charming spectacle The girls were entertained with sweetmeats, and Mrs. Annapurnabai Tilak, wife of Mr. V. V. Tilak, formerly a first-class Sub-judge in the British Judicial service and now a respectable citizen of Kolhapur, presented the girls a cholkhan each, in loyal appreciation of the great day. The ceremony closed with the distribution of Haldad and Kunkum (auspicious yellow and red pigments.)

Darbar at the Residency.

24. Precisely at noon, the Acting Resident held a grand Darbar at the Residency which was attended by Shri Yuvraj Maharaj, Shri Shiwaji Maharaj, the European and American community at the station, principal officials of the State and respectable citizens of Kolhapur. On arrival of the Yuvraj Maharaj, a salute of 19 guns was fired from the State battery. Major O'Brien, the Acting Resident, read to the assembly the Royal Proclamation, its Marathi version being read by the Residency Daftardar. This was followed by a Royal salute of 101 guns from His Highness' saluting battery. The function terminated with the distribution of attar and pan. A salute of 19 guns was fired in honour of the Yuvraj at his departure.

A deputation consisting of the Chief Judge and the Chief Revenue Officer Kolhapur, waited upon the Acting Resident at his bungalow. On his arrival at the New Palace, the Yuvraj Maharaj received him and a salute of 11 guns was fired. The Darbar was largely attended by the European and American ladies and gentlemen at the station, all officials of the State and prominent citizens of the town. Mr. R. R. Shirgavkar, the In-charge Diwan, read the following Royal Proclamation in English when all the audience stood up.

BY THE KING EMPEROR.

A Royal Proclamation.

For making known within His Majesty's Dominions the celebration of the Solemnity of the Coronation of His Majesty.

George, R. I.

Whereas by Our Royal Proclamations bearing date the nineteenth day of July and seventh day of November in the year of Our Lord one thousand nine hundred and ten in the First Year of Our Reign, We did publish and declare Our Royal intention, by the Favour and Blessings of Almighty God, to celebrate the Solemnity of Our Royal Coronation upon the twenty-second day of June, one thousand nine hundred and eleven.

And whereas, by the Favour and Blessing of Almighty God, We were enabled to celebrate the said Solemnity upon Thursday, the 22nd June last;

And whereas, by Our Royal Proclamation bearing date the twenty-second day of March in the Year of Our Lord one thousand nine hundred and eleven in the First Year of Our Reign, We did declare that it was Our wish and desire Ourselves to make known to all Our loving Subjects within Our Indian Dominions that the said Solemnity has so been celebrated, and to call to Our Presence Our Governors, Lieutenant-Governors, and other of Our Officers, the Princes, Chiefs, and Nobles of the Native States under Our Protection and the Representatives of all the Provinces of Our Indian Empire;

Now We do, by this Our Royal Proclamation, make announcement thereof and extend to all Our Officers, and to all Princes, Chiefs and Peoples now at Delhi assembled Our Royal and Imperial greeting and assure them of the deep affection with which We regard Our Indian Empire the welfare and prosperity of which are and ever will be Our constant concern.

Given at Our Court at Delhi, the twelfth day of December, one thousand nine hundred and eleven, in the Second Year of Our Reign.

God save the King-Emperor.

After the reading of the Royal Proclamation was over the Incharge Diwan made the following announcement:—

" At today's Darbar I am further directed by His Highness the Chhatrapati Maharajasaheb to announce to the public that the privilege of having gold-staff instead of silver one, conferred upon the Jahagirdars of Bavda and Kagal Senior, as personal, on the occasion of the Darbar held on 22nd June last, is made hereditary in consideration of their steadfast loyalty, hearty co-operation in administrative measures and unswerving devotion to the Huzur.

" As a memorial of today's Imperial Coronation Darbar at Delhi, His Highness has further been pleased to direct the starting of two benevolent institutions; one—a special school for the education of Patils in the State, and the other—a medical ward.

" All of us are aware that Patils are an important class of village officers. But generally it is illiterate and very backward in education. Consequently, they are found inefficient in the discharge of their duties. With a view to improve their condition the above measure is proposed to be adopted. The school will be named after the Imperial Coronation Darbar, Delhi.

"As regards the second, the definite nature of it is yet to be finally settled. Yet the addition of a ward will be a great relief to sufferers from physical ailments."

26. Translation in Marathi of the Royal Proclamation and the Incharge Diwan's speech were read by the Chief Judge, which was followed by a Royal salute of 101 guns. The Darbar concluded with the distribution of attar and pan and a salute of 11 guns at the departure of the Acting Resident.

27. Cetificates of merit granted by the Provincial Superintendent of Census, Bombay Presidency, to some of the persons who worked satisfactorily as supervisors at the last Census here, were delivered to the respective recipients on this occasion.

Feeding the poor.

28. At 2 P. M., in the rectangular enclosures of the Rissala buildings, the poor, including lepers and the infirm, were treated to a sumptuous feast. The event was announced by a beat of drum in the morning which attracted crowds of the poor, males, females and children of all castes numbering over five thousand. Clothes were also distributed to many who appeared most needy. It is gratifying to observe that the rich trading community of the town spontaneously made liberal contribution to the sum His Highness had already sanctioned for the purpose.

Wrestling matches.

29. At 3 P. M., wrestling tournaments were held on the polo ground in the New Palace compound. The place was crowded with throngs of eager spectators who seemed to enjoy the sight most heartily. The successful wrestlers were given handsome rewards according to their merit.

Illuminations.

30. In the evening all the public buildings, notably the Old Palace, the Ferris Markets and the Town Hall were illuminated. Added to this, the illuminations of private buildings by the mercantile community presented a brilliant spetacle. The streets were densely crowded by moving throngs of sight-seers.

Fire-works.

31. The last but not least of the State functions of the day was the splendid display of fire-works on the banks of the Panchganga river. Soon after dark, people in the town as well as in the surrounding villages began to collect in thousands and occupied every inch of the flight of stone steps bordering the river-bank and the adjoining extensive plain. The fireworks displayed much skill in their manufacture and were immensely enjoyed by the spectators. In the evening, bon-fires were kept blazing on tops of 9 hills in the vicinity of Kolhapur.

Release of prisoners

32. In honour of the auspicious occasion, clemency was shown to 118 well-conducted prisoners of whom 23 were released and in the case of the remaining 95 remission in the term of their imprisonment was granted.

Athletic Sports.

33. Athletic sports of the Kolhapur Infantry, Red-coated Risala and the Police Force were held on the 13th. The programme was arranged and carried out by a committee with Major O'Brien as Chairman, to whose zeal and interest the success of the function was largely due.

Demonstration by the people.

34. A noteworthy feature of the great occasion was the marked spontaneity and genuine love and loyalty to the British Throne, with which the people joined in the rejoicings. They raised goodies, fed the poor, held divine services invoking blessing upon the Royal Pair, made speeches at crowded meetings on the importance of the event and arranged performances of plays, tamashas and singing parties in honour of the occasion. The celebrations in the mofussil were of course not so grand and imposing as in the capital of His Highness; still they did not in the least, lack in enthusiasm and earnest loyalty which became manifest throughout the Principality in a way quite unprecedented in the modern history of the State.

Census.

35. The Abstraction and Tabulation work of the Kolhapur and S. M. C States was completed during the year under report under the supervision of Mr. N. P. Bhide B. A. who succeeded Mr. D. N. Phansalkar as Deputy Superintendent of Census in April 1911, when Mr. Phansalkar went to Junagad to take up the new appointment offered to him by that State. The system of work followed this time was on the whole not very different from that of the last occasion. Some modifications were, however, introduced whereby work done this year was more systematic and accurate. It was carried on under the instructions of the Provincial Superintendent of Census Bombay to whom all the statistical information was duly sent from this office. The results of the census are, however, being published in a separate report by the Deputy Superintendent. The net cost of the work will be arrived at after the publication of the report. It is roughly estimated at Rs 13,000 which is to be borne by Kolhapur Darbar and S. M. C. States in proportion to their population as returned in the last census. Last time Rs. 9,700 were spent on this work. The excess of about Rs 3,300 in the expenditure is, the Deputy Superintendent says, due to the fact that the number of Imperial tables to be prepared this time increased by 6 and information for every table had to be collected by Talukas, Mahals and Jahagirs.

6. General Review of the year.

36. This year the rain-fall was much below the record of the last year and also the average of the past five years. Rains from June to September fell in light and scattered showers only and were insufficient for crops. The Kharip crops were not therefore in good condition and consequently yielded only a fair harvest. There was a total decrease of about 30,000 acres in the areas under Jwari and Rice which are the main staple foodstuffs of the Principality and an increase of about 20,000 acres in that of groundnut. October rains were, however, above the normal at Gadhinglaj, Gargoti and some other places where Rabi crops yielded a fairly good outturn while in other places they failed to some extent. The yield of groundnut was, however, between 60 to 90 per cent. The keen demand for the groundnut seeds in the foreign market continued as in the last year and consequently the Rayots could pay off State dues easily. Supply of fodder and water was sufficient in western parts but in eastern parts especially in Shirol and Raibag it was deficient. His Highness had, therefore, to supply these parts with fodder from State grass-stores at low rates. The Agricultural stock was adequate and in good condition. The prices of staple food grains remained abnormally high throughout the year. Wages of both skilled and unskilled labour increased. There was a rise of 1,600 documents in the Registrations during the year. Criminal offences rose by about 200 and civil suits by about 300. There was an increase of births by nearly 4,300 or 8 per mille and a decrease of deaths by about 2,500 or 3·4 per mille. The Educational returns showed a good progress in primary as well as higher education.

7. Feudatory Jahagirs.

37. There are nine Feudatory Jahagirs under Kolhapur as mentioned in the Treaty of 1,862, 6 of them were managed by their respective holders and 3 namely Kapshi, Torgal and Sarlashkar were under the joint management of the Resident and Kolhapur Darbar.

38. During the year under report the following important matters relating to the Feudatories were decided:—

(1.) The fact of the withdrawal of additional powers in the criminal matters bestowed upon the Jahagirdar of Ichalkaranji has been mentioned in para 21 of chapter I of the last Annual Administration Report. The Darbar in exercise of its powers as High Court over the Jahagirdar Courts sent for papers in certain cases and called for periodical returns. The Jahagirdar objected to the Darbar's orders in the matter which were concurred in by the Resident, and memorialised the Government of Bombay praying that the Resident be asked to write to the Darbar that they can not ask for the papers and returns of Criminal Cases in his Jahagir. The Government in rejecting the memorial were pleased to observe that 'since the withdrawal on the 13th January 1910 of the exemption from the High Court supervision of the Kolhapur Darbar, the Darbar exercises the powers of a High Court over the Ichalkaranji Jahagir, and that Government do not therefore, see any occasion to advise the Kolhapur Darbar as requested or to interfere with the exercise of the powers unquestionably vested in His Highness, the Maharaja of Kolhapur.

(2.) The Jahagirdar of Kagal Junior also had raised a question in regard to the extent of powers and of propriety of the exercise by the Kolhapur Darbar of the supervision of a High Court in criminal matters in his Jahagir, and carried it to the Bombay Government for decision. In disposing of the representation, the Government were pleased to observe that 'since the 14th November 1904, when the Kolhapur Darbar assumed, with the approval of Government, all the powers of a High Court over their feudatories, the full residuary jurisdiction exercised by a High Court over its subordinate Magistrates has vested in the Darbar.

(3.) The Himat Bahadar, Kolhapur, had memorialised the Secretary of State for India in 2 matters with the following results:—

1 The Government of Bombay had upheld the decision of the Darbar in the matter of the Nazrana payable by the Himat Bahadar to the Darbar. The Government of India saw no reason to interfere with the orders of the Local Government upon this, the Himat Bahadar submitted, in March 1911 a memorial to the Secretary of State for India appealing against the decision of the Government of India. The memorial being not presented within the prescribed time was withheld by the Government of Bombay. The Jahagirdar again memorialised Government in May 1912 requesting that the memorial may be transmitted to its address or that the Darbar be advised to remit the amount of Nazrana due. The Government rejected this memorial also and the Jahagirdar was informed accordingly in June 1912.

2. The Government of Bombay had supported the ordes of the Darbar in the matter of the settlement of maintenance allowance to the son of the late Pritirao Chawan to be granted by the Himat Bahadur Jahagir. Against this order of the Bombay Government the Himat Bahadur had memorialised the Secretary of State for India in November 1911 The Secretary of State for India found no reason to interfere with the decision arrived at by the Darbar and the Jahagirdar was informed accordingly in May 1912.

7. Watan Registers.

Vatan Registers.

19. One Kulkarni Vatan Register of the Ichalkaranji Jahagir was framed during the year. 13 Patilki and 71 Kulkarni Vatan registers are yet to be framed of which 51 Patilki and 58 Kulkarni Vatans belong to the Vishalgad Jahagir alone. No work in this connection was reported to have been done by this Jahagir during the last ten years and this fact has been brought to the notice of the Jahagirdar.

9. Realization of Land Reveune.

Coercive measures for the recovery of land revenue.

22. Coercive measures generally resorted to for the recovery of land revenue in the State are only those of issuing notices of demand on the defaulters under section 152 of the Land Revenue Code and distraint and sale of the defaulters' movable property. Other measures allowed by the Code are strictly forbidden here. The number of notices issued during the year was 4,773 being less by 400 than the last years' figure and the amount for the recovery of which they had to be issued showed also a decrease of about Rs. 1,500. The process of distraint and sale of movable propertv was this vear resorted to in the case of only one person for the recovery of Rs. 64 only. The percentage of notices issued to the total number of holdings fell from 8·3 to 7·8

Condition of the tenant class.

23. Agriculturists form the bulk of the population in this Principality. They have suffered much owing to succession of bad years since 1,896. That has, however, made the tenant class wise. They are learning to grow crops requiring less moisture and bringing more money to them. The area under ground-nut crop is every year increasing and the high prices prevailing during the year owing to the keen demand for it in foreign markets enabled the Rayats to pay off the State dues and even to clear off some of the accumulated debts. Owing to the failure of crops, scarcity of fodder was greatly felt in Shirol, Raibag and other eastern parts of the Principality but the cultivators in the western parts were able to reap extensive profit from sale of grass and Kadbi at abnormally high prices. They had opportunities to supplement their income by earning high wages in the centres of labour during the time when cultivalion was at a stand-still. Their improved condition is reflected in their better raiment and in the growing demand for luxuries of food and drink. The relations of land-lord and tenant were generally satisfactory during the year and the increase in the resources of the latter is indicated by the decrease in the number of rent suits in most parts.

CHAPTER III.–PROTECTION.

The decrease in number is due to the vacancies that remained to be filled up in the Infantry Regiment at the close of the year and in expenditure, to some of the advances having been not brought to account during the year.

Average cost.

3. The average annual cost per effective man in the Cavalry was Rs. 375·8, in the Artillery Rs. 125·8 and in the Infantry including the band Rs. 196·4 or taking the whole force together, the average cost per effective man was Rs. 234·9 or about Rs. 19·8 per month.

They are generally employed for guard duty or as peons in offices. There were 119 Sanadi Shiledars (cavalry of old times) in service against 111 last year. Cost of the Risala.

9. The total cost amounted to Rs. 54,503 against Rs. 49,701 in the preceding year. The increase is mainly due to increase in the cost of feeding and other miscellaneous items and also to some items of expenditure that remained unadjusted last year being adjusted during the year.

> "A very satisfactory inspection and a high standard of efficiency acquired. All the equipment was in good order. Out of 22 signallers, 21 were first class and one 2nd class. The signalling shows a marked improvement on last year."

21. The annual inspection of the Regiment was held by the commandant on the 4th March 1912 and the remarks made by him are as follows:—

> "The Resident and Commandant Kolhapur Infantry made his annual inspection of the corps on the 4th instant."
> "The Regiment marched past in column and quarter column under the Second-in-Command and was put through Battalion Drill by the company officers, and company and section drill under the Native commissioned officers. The Regiment on the whole did not drill so creditably as at previous inspections held by the undersigned; but F Company, Subhedar Abdul Karim, stood out as distinctly the best company both in the March past and in other movements and was as smart as in previous years."
> "The Regiment sent a datachment to Delhi as a guard to His Highness the Maharaja's Camp at the Coronation Darbar and previous to the inspection for some weeks the guard duties have been heavier than usual. It is probably due to these causes that the drill was not up to the usual standard."

> "The detachment sent to Delhi was under the command of Jamadar Mahadev Scinde, and they in every way maintained the good name of the Kolhapur Infantry."

The average cost of the force per head of the State proper was Rs. 107·4 against Rs. 109·9 last year. PRICES.

18. The prices of all the staple food-grains either ruled higher or maintained the high abnormal rates of the last year in almost all parts of the Principality. The amount of Jwari purchasable per rupee fell by 5 lbs. at Ajra, by 4 lbs at Katkol, by 3 lbs. at Kagal and 1 lb. at Shirol and Gargoti while in other places it sold at about the same price as in the previous year. In Panhala taluka and in Vishalgad and Bavda Jahagirs rice was cheaper by 1 lb. while in other parts it sold dearer by 1 lb. Nagli fetched about the same price as in the preceding year; at half the reporting stations it varied in price about 1 to 2 lbs per rupee cheaper or dearer. Prices of Bajri ruled lower in parts of Gadhinglaj, Panhala, Raibag and Ichalkaranji by about 1 to 3 lbs. The keen damand for groundnut seeds continued and prices consequently rose from 10 to 15 per cent above the high prices in the previous year. There was neither a appreciable rise nor fall in the prices of Jagree, cotton and tobacco. Grass and kadba sold dearer everywhere owing to keen demand in adjoining British Districts and in the eastern parts of the Principality where their prices were about 3 to 5 times the average of the past ten years.

4. WAGES.

19. Wages during the year showed no tendency to fall, most of the Talukas and Jahagirs maintaining the high rates prevailing in the previous year. The skilled as well as unskilled labourers were able to find sufficient employment on Shahupuri housebuilding work and the tank works at Fejivade. The increase in the rates of wages is chiefly due to the increased demand for labour and the high prices of food grains.

3. Forests.

Area. 20. The area under Reserved and Protected Forests was 349 and 188 square miles.

Offences. 21. During the year there were 89 forest offences against 109 in the preceding year. Of these 5 were sent to criminal courts and the rest were disposed of departmentally. The total amount of fines imposed was Rs. 708 against Rs. 1,028 last year.

Fires. 22. The number of forest fires was 12 against 38 and the area burnt was 313 acres against 1,158 last year. The estimated damage caused by these fires was worth Rs. 13.

Tea plantation. 23. There is a tea plantation at Nandgaon in Panhala Peta under the control of the Forest Department. About 10 lbs. of tea was produced there during the year under report.

Hirda crop. 24. The collection of Hirda crop increased from 11,488 Khandis to 17,971 Khandis and the income from Rs. 1,06,717 to Rs. 1,64,642. This year the work of collecting the Hirda and of carrying it to the Station was done departmentally.

Financial results.

25. The total income from forests rose from Rs. 1,23,016 to Rs. 1,94,913 and the expenditure increased from Rs. 21,663 to Rs. 1,01,522. The increase in the income was due to the fact that there was more out-turn of Hirda crop this year and also the increase in the expenditure over the last year's figure was due to the fact that the work of collecting the Hirda and of carrying it to the Station was done departmentally instead of giving it to the contractor as last year.

4. Manufacture and Industries.

Shri Shahu Chhatrapati Spinning and Weaving Mills Kolhapur.

26. The mill continued working during the whole year. Out of 10,000 shares, 5,780 shares have been sold up to the end of March 1912 and the rest are still to be sold. The number of spindles working was 11,388. The daily average number of mill-hands was 419 against 217 last year. The total value of out-turn was Rs. 5,52,110. The yarn turned out of this mill is approved in the market.

Ginning factory at Chinchli.

27. The ginning factory at Chinchli was closed during the year as there was no out-turn of cotton crop this year on that side.

Ginning factory and Dyeing factory at Ichalkaranji.

28. The ginning factory at Ichalkaranji worked for two months during the cotton season. The daily average number of hands working was 60 and the total value of out-turn was Rs. 2,18,000 and the profit was nearly Rs. 2,000. The dyeing factory worked for the whole of the year. The manager purchases yarn and dyes it. The value of dyed yarn turned out of this factory was Rs. 42,000. The daily average number of workmen was 40. The profit earned by the manager was Rs. 3,000

Gining factory at Gad-Hinglaj.

29. The ginning factory at Gadhinglaj worked for nearly 7 months. The daily average number of labourers was 35. The owner of the factory buys cotton and gins for himself only. The total value of out-turn was about Rs. 60,000. The owner has also a ginning factory at Shahupuri. Here also he buys cotton and gins for himself.

Ginning factory. at Shirol Road.

30. The ginning factory at Shirol Road worked for 8 days only. The daily average number of labourers was 20 during that period.

5. Trade.

31. There was a sight decrease in the total trade during the year. The import trade showed an increase by about 2 per cent while the export trade showed a decrease by about 4 per cent. The decrease is chiefly seen under unrefined sugar (gur), less of which was exported to Ahmadabad and Kathiawar owing to famine on that side. The equantities in maunds of commodities for the year 1911 exported from and imported into the State by means of the Kolhapur State Railway are shown in the subjoined statement:—

CHAPTER V.-FINANCIAL REVIEW.

1. General.

Financial Department and its works.

1. The Diwan is the chief controlling authority of finance in this State corresponding to the Accountant General in the British territory. All sorts of bills and accounts excepting those relating to the P. W. Department are first examined by the Daftardar (Huzur Chitnis, Account Branch) who works in the capacity of Assistant Accountant General and then submitted by him to the Diwan's Office for payment or adjustment. The bills and accounts relating to the P. W. Department and the J. G. Technical School, Kolhapur, are checked in the Diwan's Office by the Auditor specially appointed for the purpose. Amounts of pensions to be given to retired officers of the State are settled in Daftardar's office (now designated as Huzur Chitnis, Account Branch Office). The final accounts of the State (both Jamabandi and Nagdi) are also compiled there from monthly and yearly accounts received from the Huzur and Taluka treasuries. Post audit system is not followed here. Bills are first checked and then payments made.

Payment orders and adjustments.

2. Orders of cash payment issued during the year on the Huzur and Taluka treasuries numbered 3345 and 1179 respectively. Adjustments orders to be made in the Huzur and Taluka treasuries were 271 and 143 respectively.

	Cash.	Debts due &c.	Total.
	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.

2. Gross Revenue and Expenditure.

1. Gross Revenue.

6. The gross revenue was Rs. 64,32,681 which showed an increase of about ten lacs over the figure of the last year. The increase was seen under all the heads of receipts except the alienations which showed a decrease of Rs. 9000 only. The major portion of the rise was, however, due to the adjustments of advances amounting to 7 lacs made for Delhi Darbar, Irrigation tank and other works. Of the remaining 3 lacs of increase, one lac was shared by K. S. Railway, ½ by Excise, ½ by Forest and one lac by other heads. The increase under railway was due to enormous rise both in the coaching and the goods traffic; that under Excise was attributed to the larger receipts of still-head duty and that under Forest to better production of Hirda crop.

2. Gross Expenditure.

7. The gross expenditure too which amounted to Rs 65,17,953 showed an increase of ten lacs over the last year's figure. There was an increase of aboat ¾ of a lac under the head "Debts, Deposits and Advances," which was chiefly attributed to larger amounts of revenue deposits having been returned during the year. The net expenditure thus showed a rise of 9¼ lacs of rupees; of which 5 lacs are noticed under head "Public Works" and 4¼ lacs under Khasgi Department. The rise under Public Works was due to larger amounts spent on original as well as repair works and that under Khasgi mainly due to the marriage expenditure of His Highness' daughter, Shri Radhabai Akkasaheb Maharaj, having been brought to account this year.

Gross Balance.

8. The gross balance at the close of the year amounted to Rs. 19,30,211 being about 85,000 less than that of the last year (20,15,483). It is as detailed below:—

Cash in Huzur and Taluka Treasuries:	Rs.	6,13,503

The increase in demand is noticed both in current year's demand and the arrears from last year. The percentage of collection to the total demand was 67-9 against 69·9 in the preceding year. The fall in percentage is attributed to the unfavourable season of the year.

10. The outstandings on account of former years at the beginning of the year amounted to Rs. 5,64,483 against Rs. 5,42,047. Of these Rs. 35,684 or 6·3 of the total arrears were recovered and Rs. 2,169 written off as being irrecoverable leaving a balance of Rs. 5,19,630. Reforms.

22. The following reforms and changes were made in respect of pay and promotions of the staff of masters, the maximum number of students and the percentage of freeships during the year.

(I.) The Assistant masters in the Rajaram High school have been divided into three grades according to their University qualifications. The graduates being styled 1st grade, the intermediates 2nd grade and the matrics third grade teachers. They are to start on Rs. 40, 30 and 20 p. m. rising to Rs. 80, 60 and 45 by quinquennial increment of Rs. 8, 6 and 5 respectively.

(1.) According to the old system of promotions and grades to the High School staff, they succeeded, in order of seniority as vacancies occurred, to posts each carrying a certain pay. As it worked out in practice, this system created a feeling of insecurity among the masters as they did not know what salary they could look forward to receive and as the masters are of different grades, it was impossible to treat them justly and according to their qulifications. Hopes were raised which could not be fulfilled and if the State wanted to put in a special man his appointment seriously affected the prospects of others. One man's promotion might be very rapid, while that of another, his superior in every thing but a few months of seniority, might be very slow. Lower grade masters went up above those of higher grade.

(2.) According to the new system sanctioned the salaries of masters were re-arranged according to a fixed scale and to their grades so as to enable each man to know what he has to expect and be confident that his prospects will not be interfered with by others. This is conducive to the welfare of the School in the following way:—

(1.) An end has been put to attempts on the part of the Masters to exert influence in indirect ways.

(2.) As each Master now knows what he has to expect, he is no longer anxious or discontented.

(3.) No trouble is experienced when a new Master has to be appointed, new appointments and promotions proceeding automatically cause no trouble.

(II.) The number of admissions into the Rajaram High school are not in any case to exceed 500 in view of the present staff and accomodation available.

(III.) The number of freeships to be awarded at the College and the High school is fixed at 15 per cent of the total number of boys in them.

23. The Educational Endowment funds of which the Darbar is a trustee were 14 in number amounting to Rs 1,62,400 which are invested in G. P. Notes of 3½ per cent loan. Your Majesty has a special claim to the gratitude, love and devotion of the people of India and the Rulers of Native States owing to the unique opportunity your Majesty has graciously been pleased to decide to give them, of personally rendering fealty to your Majesty of the Coronation Darbar to be held at Delhi this year and we cannot be too grateful for the sacrifice your Majesty is making on this account. In conclusion I feel proud to join in the fervent prayer which will go up on this occasion from all quarters of the vast British Empire encircling the Globe that your Majesty, with your Majesty's consort, who has already won the hearts of the people of India and has always been a constant help-mate to your Majesty may long be spared to rule over us and your Majesty's reign may be an era of unbroken peace, Prosperity and happiness to the teeming millions privileged to be your Imperial Majesty's subjects:

With feelings of most profound veneration and unswerving loyalty.

MAHARAJA OF KOLHAPUR.

2. The above address was despatched with a State Mankari through the Political Agent to the Bombay Government for being transmitted to His Majesty.

Kolhapur Camp at Delhi.

1. General.

1. Early in 1911, His Highness the Chhatrapati Maharajasaheb received an invitation from the Viceroy and Governor General of India to attend the Coronation Darbar. Thereupon, a scheme for raising a camp to suit all sorts of requirements during His Highness' stay at Delhi in connection with the grand Darbar, was drawn up. Mr. T. M. Joshi, Mamledar of Panhala was specially appointed to carry out the work under the direct control of the Diwan and was designated 'Superintendent, Kolhapur Camp, Delhi. The following officers of the State were placed at his disposal to help him in carrying out thi camping work:—

(c.) Mr. Anandrao Yardi, Sub-Assistant Surgeon, of the State Medical Department as a 'Medical Officer' in charge of the Camp

(d.) Mr. Ramchandrarao Bhausaheb Gaikwad Faraskhana Kamgar Khasgi Department, was entrusted with supervising tents, furniture and other articles.

2. These officers joined their duties when they were indented for by the Superintendent.

2. Camp site

3. Happily a very excellent site was assigned to the Kolhapur Darbar for their camp. First it measured 450′ × 750′. But when it was found insufficient to locate the petrol depot at a safe distance from the hay-stack another plot of 1,400 Sq. yards contiguous to the site was kindly allowed to be included in the site. It was situate in a healthy and well-drained locality on the west-side of the Kingsway, midway between the King's Camp on the south and the Amphi-theatre on the north. It had also the advantage of a close vicinity to the Kings-way Railway Station, the Post Office and the Central Market. A branch of the Jamna Canal which passed along the eastern border of the camp proved of immense value in making adequate supply of water while the camp was being erected.

Camp Construction.

4. The plan was prepared by Mr. Sadashiv Sabaji under direct instructions of the Diwan.

5. The site was taken possession of by Mr. Joshi on the 23rd April 1911, and the work of erection of the camp was immediately taken in hand The site was fenced all round with plain iron wire rope, the front side fence being erected at the cost of the State by the Central Committee, with two gate ways for the arches just behind the culverts on the Canal.

6. A semi rotatory hand-power pump was fixed on the canal and worked by coolies. Pipes were laid out from it to a big brick cistern at the back side of the Camp and also pipes were laid out from the pump to the garden in front, with openings at intervals so that with the aid of canvas hoses water could be taken to any part of the camp with much ease. Latterly the camp was supplied by the Central Committee with 5 taps $\frac{1}{2}''$ diameter each of distilled Jamna water, which flowed all day through and yielded abundant supply of water for culinary and drinking purposes.

7. Naturally the site was well drained, sloping gradually from the front to the back. The rain water drained off by a small natural channel on the north.

8 From the beginning Government took every possible precaution to guard against insanitary condition. As soon as work was started, the services of a sweeper or two were engaged In all 45 privies, 40 for the followers and 5 for Khases were erected for the use of camp-inmates. They were built of brick and mud with chunam pointing. Large pits were dug in the open space immediately behind the back of the compound. Two pits were assigned for disposing of the night-soil which were kept sweet by depositing fresh earth Two other pits were used for depositing litter and stable rubbish. Seven sweepers were employed for the purpose. Drians leading to a deep pit cutside the Camp were dug for the disposal of waste water from kitchens &c.

9. In all 33 tents including two Shamianas were erected with sufficiently wide paths all round, well consolidated and with red bajri spread on. All the tents were taken from Kolhapur from the Khasgi Department with the exception of two which were newly purchased for the occasion. Besides the tents, 47 Rahutees were erected to accommodate the Kolhapur Infantry Party and personal attendants of His Highness. 15 large sheds with 35 rooms with grass thatch and Jaffry-walls lined with mud-plaster were built for the use of common followers. In addition to these, 2 very large sheds were erected which could provide accommodation for horses, carriages, motors and harness accoutrements. The crriage shed was walled with corrugated iron-sheets to minimise risk from fire. Spacious rooms were erected for His Highness' kitchen and dining. Also separate kitchen and dining rooms were constructed for the Jahagirdar of Bavada. The Jahagirdars of Vishalgad and Ichalkaranji had made their own arrangements for kitchen, dining, stabling &c.,

10. The work was got done by giving piece-work contracts.

3. Lighting arrangments

11. All the tents in the Camp and His Highness' dining room were provided with electric light, the total number of lamps being 172. As private electric installation was disallowed, the arrangments were entrusted to the Government contractor. The sheds and rahutees were lit up with kerosine-oil hand-lamps, wall lamps and Kitson-light.

4. Fire precautions.

12. In addition to water cisterns which were almost full, wooden barrels filled with water with some buckets were kept at half a dozen important points in the Camp, with small heaps of the Jamna river-sand. Knives for cutting tent ropes were kept ready in several tents, three or four 'Minimax' fire extinguishers were kept at prominent places ready for use. A petrol-pit lined on all sides with corrugated iron sheets covered with loose earth was constructed. It was so located as to be at least 75 feet apart from any shed, tent or hay-stack. a canvass-pipe of considerable length with a hose was kept ready for use.

5. Provisions.

13. Almost all the food and grass provisions were purchased in the local markets and stored in the sheds &c. specially built for the purpose. Stationery, spices &c. were purchased in Bombay. Fruit, vegetables and flowers were obtained locally under a contract. Arrangements were made to obtain a supply of milk and butter from the Government dairy. Besides this, a number of she-buffaloes was kept in the camp under a contract to ensure a sufficient supply of the commodities-

6. Special features of the Camp.

14. The Kolhapur Camp was situated in the midst of camps of other high Chiefs such as the Maharaja of Baroda, Mewad, Bikaner &c. and on the Kings way by which Their Majesties were to pass on their way to the great Darbar-Amphitheatre and on other ceremonial occasions. The Camp had, therefore, to be constructed in a way befitting the high position of His Highness consistent with economy. Two splendid arches set with frames of oil-paintings of historical sights of Kolhapur were erected over the gateways. The paintings studded with small electric lamps, attracted crowds of spectators and were much admired especially by European spectators. At a distance of 100 feet from the entrance was pitched the 1st row of tents, the inquiry office being located in one tent in the southern corner. The intervening space between the entrance and the row of tents was used for a spacious road lined with beautiful gardens on both the sides. In the centre of the front row of tents was erected the Darbar Shamiana behind which were two of His Highness' private tents. The Shamiana was plainly but tastefully decorated with blue drapery issuing out from behined golden stars and bordered with golden lace. The State Couch on which His Highness and the H. E. the Viceroy were to take their seats on the occasion of return visit, was placed on a wooden dais behind which was placed the Delhi Darbar banner over which was placed His Majesty's portrait with the crown on and with two crossed jacks beneath all prepared and arranged under the supervision of an artist. On one side of the dais was His Majesty's full size painting mounted on a wooden frame-work with drapery and gold embroidered velvet, while on the other side was placed a similar painting of Her Majesty the Queen. The Kolhapur Crest painted on a card-board in its picturesque hue shone on some of the poles of the Shamiana which was supplied with electric light.

15. The flag staff flying the Bhagwazenda was fixed in front of the Shamiana beyond the main front road.

16. His Highness the Chhatrapati Maharajasaheb accompanied by feudatory Jahgirdars, Sardars, guests, officials and followers left Kolhapur for Delhi by a special train on the 27th November 1911. Lt. The special reached Bhopal at 11-30 A. M. on the 29th where a halt of 4 hours was made for bath and meals of the party. The Bhopal Darbar had kindly offered to make the arrangements. The Revenue Minister of Bhopal and his staff were accordingly present on the station-platform to wait upon His Highness on the arrival of the special. The party were accommodated in spacious tents specially put up for the purpose in close vicinity of the station precincts. All the arrangements were grand and perfect and every attention was paid to make the halt as comfortable as possible, for which thanks of the Darbar are due to Her Highness the Begumsaheb. The special left Bhopal at 3 P. M. and reached Delhi at 11-30 A. M. the next day.

REPORT

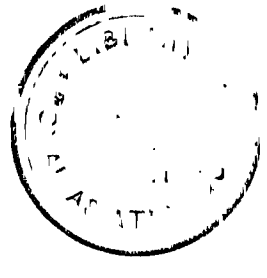
GENERAL ADMINISTRATION

OF THE



KOLHAPUR STATE

FOR THE YEAR

1912-1913.

Kolhapur.

PRINTED AT THE "JAINENDRA" PRESS,

KOLHAPUR.

1913.

In rounding off figures in several places fractions exceeding one-half have been reckoned as equivalent to one and those equal to or less than one-half have been left out of consideration; in consequence, a slight discrepancy may sometimes occur in additions and subtractions, especially in the case of sums of money.

16. "I desire to offer to Your Excellency my sincerest congratulations on today's most auspicious occasion which marks a new era in the Political history of the ancient capital of India, the city of Delhi, and request Your Excellency kindly to convey to their Most Gracious Majesties the King-Emperor and Queen-Empress of India my most respectful and loyal appreciation of the act which has restored the ancient city to its former glory and prestige. I wish long and happy life to Their Majesties."

17. The reply to the message was received through the Resident. It was to the following effect:— "His Excellency the Viceroy and Governor General of India states that the telegram that he has received from His Highness fills him with the liveliest satisfaction as evidence of His Highness' hearty approval of the momentous change inaugurated by His Most Gracious Majesty to which the formal establishment of the Government of India in Delhi gives effect. His Excellency the Viceroy and Governor General desires to thank His Highness the Maharaja most warmly for His Highness' message and to assure His Highness that the message will be duly communicated to the Secretary of state."

18. On receipt of news of the dastardly attempt on the life of the Viceroy on the occasion of the State Entry, meetings were held to give expression to the feelings of abhorrence and indignation at the heinous offence and to offer prayers for His Excellency's providential escape. The most important of these was the meeting of the Kolhapur citizens held on the 26th December 1912 at the Victoria Maratha Students' Hostel, which was largely attended by Jahagirdars, officers, merchants &c., and presided over by His Highness himself. His Highness in his presidential speech gave a free vent to his own feelings of indignation at the base deed and paid a most eloquent tribute to the extra-ordinary calmness and patience with which His Excellency faced the situation and the heroic courage and presence of mind displayed by Her Excellency Lady Hardinge. All the people joined in His Highness' hearty prayers for the speedy recovery of the Viceroy.

19. The whole Principality was jubilant over the news of His Excellency's complete recovery and thanks giving meetings were held at different places in the State, His Highness presiding over a meeting of the Kolhapur citizens at the Victoria Maratha Student's hostel on the 27 January 1913.

20. The movement for the presentation of a fitting address by women of India to Her Excellency Lady Hardinge for Her Excellency's noble and heroic act initiated by Her Excellency Lady Sydenham was enthusiastically taken up by Her Highness Maharani Laxmibaisaheb Maharaj who took the lead and got commitees appointed to convene meetings of women of all creeds and communites in the State to join in the address and collect small subscriptions for the purpose. The whole affair was quite a success. All women old and young, rich and poor, took part in the meetings. The total amount contributed to the "Lady Hardinge address fund" was Rs. 1,797. The addresses and Statements giving particulars of meetings were sent to Her Excellency Lady Sydenham for transmission to Her Excellency Lady Hardinge.

21. The following is a short account of the celebrations in connection with the birth-day of His Excellency the Viceroy, Lord-Hardinge.

22. His Highness was pleased to give a holiday to all schools in the State and also to offices in the city. In obedience to the orders of His Highness a programme of celebrations was drawn up by Mr. A. B. Latthe, the Educational Inspector, in consultation with the Superintendent of the City Municipality, Mr. B. V. Jadhav, which was gone through on the day. It consisted of:—

(1) Sports.

(2) Distribution of sweetmeat and photos of Their Excellencies Lord and Lady Hardinge to boys and girls.

(3) Offering of prayers to the Almighty.

23. The chief feature of the sports was the institution of wrestling matches. His Highness has, with a view to encourage esprit de corps among school boys, offered in commemoration of this joyous occasion a shield named 'Lord Hardinge Shield' to be competed for by boys above 15 years of age. Following the example of His Highness another shield, named 'Lady Hardinge Shield' was awarded by the City Municipality for boys under 15 years. Wrestling matches have thus become an annual fixture. These matches were played in the grand arena, in the Khasbag, the use of which was kindly granted by His Highness for the purpose, and were largely attended.

24. Photos of Their Excellencies were distributed together with sweets to boys and girls, the recipients of which in the city alone numbered 5,318 and 1,802 respectively.

25. Songs, offering thanks to God for the providential escape of Their Excellencies from the outrage, were sung in chorus in all schools early Friday morning. They were followed by a speech in Marathi, explaining the significance of the joyous occasion and exhorting the boys to keep themselves aloof from the pernicious creed of the anarchists and be loyal and grateful to the British Government for the benefits they were receiving. Printed copies of it were supplied to all boys. A congratulatory message on behalf of all children to H. E. the Viceroy was arranged to be sent through the Resident.

26. In the evening all the boys, over five thousand in number, were assembled in one place where they offered thanks to God for the providential escape of Their Excellencies. National anthems were sung in English and Vernacular. The assembly dispersed after three cheers to His Majesty, the King-Emperor, His Excellency the Viceroy and His Highness.

27. The celebrations in the girls' schools were gone through in a similar way under the direction of the Lady Superintendent. Many ladies in the town including a few European ladies took part in the celebrations in the Ahilyabai Girls' School. Over 1,500 ladies and girls had assembled there.

28. From accounts received from District Officers, it is learnt that similar celebrations took place in all schools throughout the State.

29. His Highness wired his personal congratulations to Lord Hardinge.

30. Darbars were held at the Residency and New Palace on 17th June 1912 on the occasions of His Highness' visit to Lt-Colonel J. W. B. Merewether who was appointed Ag. Resident Kolhapur and Political Agent

S. M. C. States and the return visit of the latter. A Darbar was held at the New Palace on the 3rd January 1913 at the time of his departure. A salute of 11 Guns was fired on his arrival and departure.

31. Similar Darbars were again held at the Residency and New Palace on the 10th January 1913 after the return of Lt-Colonel F. W. Wodehouse C. I. E. from leave.

7. General Review.

32. This year the monsoon made an excellent beginning and consequently the area taken up for cultivation increased by about four thousand acres. July and August rains were abnormally heavy and there were high floods lasting for about a week or so and resulting in serious damage to kharip as well as rabi crops. The out-turn of the principal food-grains was in almost all the places below the average. The abnormal rise in prices of staple food grains continued throughout the year. Cattle disease prevailed in some parts, but it was of a mild type. Supply of fodder and water was sufficient.

33. The general condition of the State continues to show signs of improvement. There has been a development of industrial enterprises and increased demand for labour; the poorer classes generally find work at higher wages than before; cultivation and irrigation are extending year by year and the artizan classes have shared in the general prosperity of the State. The educational returns exhibit an increased rate of progress. The birth rate showed a slight decline and the death rate showed a slight increase. The keen demand for the groundnut seeds and cotton in the foreign market continued as in the last year. Consequently the Ryots were able to pay off State dues without difficulty.

" The Commandant made his Annual Inspection of the Regiment on the 11th and 13th December 1912.

On the 11th December, the usual ceremonials and other movements were performed and companies were then inspected in various branches of drill. The march past was good. The dressing and intervals were well kept and the marching was very even.

The Bayonet Fighting, Physical Drill &c. were also very creditably performed and showed that great care had been taken in the instruction of the men.

More care must be taken in correcting mistakes or slackness in the ranks. Non-commissioned officers must pay great attention to this important part of their duties on parade.

On the 13th December, a test march and tactical exercise were performed. The result was, on the whole, very satisfactory when it is remembered that the regiment has had little practice in this direction. The general conduct of the regiment has been extremely good during the year.

The services of the regiment were of great value on two occasions. The first when a disastrous fire took place at the Ferris Market and the second when some prisoners attempted to escape from the Kolhapur Jail, and were recaptured by the guard of the regiment. The general results of the inspection are very satisfactory and the Commandant trusts that next year's inspection will show a further advance."

The report of the Brigade signalling officer, Belgaum Brigade, on his inspection of the regimental signallers on the 12th April 1912, is satisfactory in the extreme. He remarks that the signalling of the Regiment reflects great credit on the instructors.

Of 22 men inspected only one failed to get into the first class.

The Commandant is very pleased to see that great care is taken in such games as Cricket, Hockey &c.. The value to a soldier of such exercise can hardly be over-estimated. It is noteworthy that in most regiments the men who excel in manly sports are among the best soldiers in the regiment. The recent visit of the cricket and hockey teams to Belgaum, although not successful was very creditable if the members available for selection in Belgaum be compared with those in Kolhapur.

As a result of the increased interest taken in games it has been found possible to abolish compulsory attendance.

Detailed notes of the inspection have been issued and should be carefully explained to company officers by the Second-in-Command. The company officers should then explain them thoroughly to their companies. Care is to be taken that the points noticed are corrected in future."

3. From the above it will be seen that the area under food crops decreasd as compared with the average as well as the last year's figure by about

2 per cent owing to the heavy and continuous rain-fall in the beginning of the monsoon. The rabi crops showed an increase of about 4,000 acres and the area under tobacco fell to the extent of 4,000 acres. Under the incentive afforded by high prices in the previous seasons and keen demand in the foreign markets the cultivation of oil-seeds and cotton increased by 6 and 8 thousand acres respectively.

Monsoon.

15. The monsoon rains commenced on the 11th June but the current being weak, it was not till the end of that month that mosoon conditions were fully established every-where. The rain-fall being timely and sufficient, helped kharip crops to flourish. From July to the end of August there was heavy rain-fall in almost all parts of the Principality, thereby the Kharip and Rabi crops were damaged to a great extent. This year the rain-fall was much above the record of the last year and also the average of the past five years. The Kharip as well as Rabi crops were not therefore in good condition and consequently yielded only a fair harvest.

Temperature. at Kolhapur.

16. The mean temperature for the year under report was 76°-6 against 76°-8 in the previous year. 2. Wages.

18. The scarcity of labour continued to be felt throughout the Kolhapur Principality, and wages in consequence tended to rise or to maintain their previous high level. The shortage was particularly noticeable in the case of unskilled labour. There was a keen demand for labour in the big towns and for great irrigation and other projects. The wages for unskilled work were as much as 6 or 7 annas a day. In the case of skilled artizans, the wages have even risen to 12 annas per diem.

3. Prices.

19. There was a general rise in the prices of food grains during the year. This was largely due to the partial failure of crops and also in some measure to the exportation of food grains to the affected parts outside the state.

He is assisted by the Daftardar (account branch) who at first examines all sorts of bills and accounts excepting those relating to the Public Works Department and then submits them to the Diwan's office for payment or adjustment. The accounts of the public works department and J. G. Technical school are examined by the Auditor in the Diwan's office. The final accounts of the state are compiled by the Daftardar from the monthly sheets received from the Huzur treasury and from the yearly accounts received from the Taluka treasuries. The monthly and quarterly accounts of the Kolhapur Darbar with the British Government are also checked by him. Amounts of pensions to be given to retired servants of the state are calculated and fixed in his office.

Notes of the value of Rs. 14,01,200 came to Rs. 40,413 during the year.

Financial condition.

5. The sub-joined table shows the financial condition of the state at the close of year as compared with that of the preceding year :—

Year.	Assets.			Liabilities.	Net assets of the year.
	Cash.	Debts due &c.	Total.
	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.
1911-1912	19,30,211	45,62,481	64,92,692	17,61,807	47,30,885
1912-1913	23,54,152	43,57,201	67,11,353	17,39,245	49,72,108

2 Gross Revenue and Expenditure.

1. Gross Revenue.

6. The gross revenue of the current year amounted to Rs. 63,92,748 which showed a fall of Rs. 24,000 only from the previous year's figures. Including debts, deposits and advances which showed a rise of about Rs. 13,000 over the last year, the net revenue of the year came to Rs. 25,47,871 showing a total decrease of Rs. 38,000 only. This decrease was the result of an increase of Rs. 70,000 chiefly seen under the heads excise (40,000) Law and Justice (9,000), Public works (9,000), Kuran (8,000), and Stationery (3,000) and a decrease of Rs. 1 08,000 under the heads Land Revenue (6,000), Forest Revenue (7,000), Stamp, (7,000), Miscellaneous (16,000) and Railway (70,000) which is nominal being not brought to account this year. The rise under Excise was due to larger receipts from still head duty, that under law and justice to realization of more fines and fees from sanads, hat under P. W. D. to more receipts from Toll, that under Kuran to the sale of grass at higher rate. The receipts of the Kolhapur State Railway for the half year ending 31st December 1912 only were brought to account this year, hence the decrease under Railway. The out-turn of Hirda crop was slightly poor in some parts and thus showed a small decrease under Forest Revenue The interest on G. P. Notes and other amounts realized during the year was less and so there was a fall of Rs. 16,000 under the head Miscellaneous. The decrease under other heads being very small needs no explanation.

2. Gross Expenditure.

7. The gross expenditure decreased from Rs. 65,17,953 to Rs. 59,81,384 showing a total decline of about $5\frac{1}{2}$ lacs of rupees from the previous year's figures. Of this $2\frac{1}{4}$ lacs were shared by debts, deposits and advances. The net expenditure of the year shows thus a decrease of $4\frac{1}{2}$ lacs of which $3\frac{1}{4}$ lacs belonged to the head Khasgi and $1\frac{1}{4}$ lacs to Public works. The decrease under debts was due to smaller amounts of advances required to be given during the year for works, that under Khasgi to the absence of marriage expenses as in the previous year's accounts and that under Public works to less amounts spent on repairs.

3. Cash Balance.

8. The cash balance amounted to Rs. 23,54,152 as exhibited in the above statement. It consisted of:—

Cash in Huzur and Taluka treasuries:—	Rs.	6 52,952
Government Promisory Notes	,,	14,01,200
Fixed deposit in the Bombay Bank	,,	3,00,000
Total Rs.—		23,54,152

3. Land Revenue.

Demands, collections &c.

9. The total demand including the outstandings for former years amounted to Rs. 19,50,400 against Rs. 19,28,338 and collections to Rs. 13,05,592 against

Rs. 13,11,728. The increase in demand is noticed both in current year's demand and the arrears from last year. The percentage of collection to the total demand was 66·5 against 67·9 in the previous year. The fall in percentage is chiefly attributed to the unfavourable season of the year.

4 Local Funds.

10 The receipts from local funds under various items were as shown below:—

No.	Nature of item.	1911-1912.	1912-1913.
1	One Anna Local Cess	1,20,955	1,21,128
2	Toll-bar Receipts	56,582	35,673
3	Interest on the Educational Endowment Funds	4,974	5,086
4	Ferries	1,101	1,289
5	Cattle pound Receipts	2,013	2,707

25. On the 25th November, the most important function of the day was the unveiling of the Statue-busts of Their Majesties King George V and Queen Mary and other members of Royal family, erected near the statue-bust of Her Late Majesty Queen-Empress Victoria. At 8 A.M. His Excellency was received by His Highness and conducted to a seat in the Shamiana erected near the place. The Diwan, by command of His Highness, in requesting His Excellency to do the unveiling ceremony said on behalf of His Highness :—

26. Your Excellency, Colonel Wodehouse, Jahagirdars, Ladies and Gentlemen.

" Before commencing proceedings of the ceremony for which we have assembled here, viz., to unveil the statue-busts of Their Majesties, the late King Edward VII and Queen Alexandra, King George V and Queen Mary and Their Royal Highnesses the Duke and Duchess of Connaught—humble tokens of my loyalty and devotion to the Sovereigns and members of the Royal Family—I desire to accord a most cordial welcome to Your Excellency to my capital and express my deep gratitude to you for your visit. I feel proud that my State should be the first to receive the honour of Your Excellency's visit. The present time too is most opportune as the recent rains have banished all fears of scarcity and what, but for the timely rain-fall, would have been a bad year is converted into one of abundance and prosperity. I am only sorry that Lady Willingdon has been unable to accompany Your Excellency. We all miss Her Ladyship very much on this occasion. I trust however that it may not be long before I have the pleasure of welcoming Her Excellency also. "

" I would take this opportunity of publicly expressing my sense of gratefulness to Government for enhancing the prestige of my State by raising the status of the Political Agent here to that of the Resident and it is a source of sincere gratification to me that my friend Colonel Wodehouse should have been the first recipient of that honour. His connection with my State dates from the time of my minority when his respected and beloved father, the late Colonel Wodehouse, was Political Agent. I have a lively remembrance of the affectionate and anxious care he bestowed on my education. I owe him a debt of gratitude as I also do to his son to whose sympathetic help I am indebted for the smooth progress of many a reform in my administration. In my educational policy and the great irrigation scheme I have taken in hand, his help and advice are most valuable to me."

"Of the august Royal personages whose busts Your Excellency will soon be unveiling, I need say but little. Their noble deeds are too well-known to the world for me to recount them here. They will ever remain enshrined in our hearts. My subjects have already raised a humble yet fitting memorial to our late gracious Sovereign King Edward VII, and the farmers in my State are even now deriving benefit from the King Edward Agricultural Institute. More, however, is still expected of it, and it is hoped as primary education advances the institution may become increasingly useful to the rayats of my State. The Coronation Darbar at Delhi was a unique event. It could never be effaced from the memory of those that had the good fortune to witness it and it was there that Their Most Gracious Majesties King George V and Queen Mary won the hearts of the people of this country by those divine attributes which the East is accustomed to associate with royalties. Of Their Royal Highnesses the Duke and Duchess of Connaught I have an affectionate recollection. During their stay in this country their affability and courtesy did more than anything else to cement the ties of friendship between the ruling Chiefs of India and the members of the Royal family and it is my sincerest wish that during Your Excellency's regime those ties may by God's grace be still more firmly knit together so as to rebound to the honour of England and India and make for the peace and happiness of both countries."

"I now respectfully request Your Excellency to unveil the busts."

27. His Excellency in reply said:—

Your Highness, Chiefs, Jahagirdars, Ladies and Gentlemen.

" I am deeply grateful to you for the cordial welcome you have extended to me today, and delighted to hear that I come out at a time when you are expecting a prosperous season for your people. I have had a great wish to pay an early visit to your state for I have been very anxious as Governor of this Presidency to express to you on behalf of Government our warm appreciation of your loyalty to and constant and unswerving support of British rule and authority. It is a matter of deep satisfaction to me and it must indeed be a matter of deep pride to you to know that you and your family both in dark days in past and in more recent periods of political unrest in this Presidency have always stood firm in support of our Sovereign and his rule. Such splendid loyalty as you have always shown has never been and never will be forgotten by the British Government."

"I am well aware that the responsibilities of your rule have not been devoid of anxiety and difficulty but I am sure that your administration has been just and fair and has always had as its ideal the desire for the progress and prosperity of your people. It is indeed gratifying to hear that Col. Wodehouse your Resident has given you such excellent counsel and advice, and I believe you have been much assisted in your labours by your worthy Diwan Rao Bahadur Sabnis and also by your brother the Chief of Kagal whom I am glad to be able to number among my personal friends. Your interest in education is well known, and I am delighted to see that you are taking special means to give opportunities of instruction in methods of agriculture and that great scheme of irrigation which you propose to undertake testifies to your real desire to improve the productivity of the soil and give greater prosperity to your people."

"Your Highness, I am indeed delighted to be here, delighted to commence an aquaintance, may I say friendship, which I hope may be firm and lasting between us. And may I add this one word. You have given me a warm welcome today, I look forward to the future and hope that in years to come when you pay a visit to my part of the Empire, I may be able to give you a welcome to my home, as sincere, as warm, as cordial as you have given me today."

" And now let me respond to your invitation and fulfil the unveiling ceremony which you have done me the high honour to ask me to perform, and which gives one more proof if proof were necessary of your Highness' loyalty and devotion to the Throne. I trust that these portraitures of our Sovereign and other members of the Royal House may always remind you of those who have always felt the deepest sympathy and affection of the Indian people, and whose guiding hands have in the past and will in the future ever lead us to work together, whatever be our race, caste or creed, for the peace, prosperity and greatness of this great Empire."

28. After the unveiling ceremony was over, His Excellency and party accompanied by His Highness motored to Dajipur to see the progress of the Maharani Laxmibai Tank Works from which great results are expected. Radhanagari.

After taking lunch there His Excellency and party returned to the Residency for tea and dinner.

Departure.

29. At 9 P.M. His Excellency left Kolhapur by special train. The usual honours were paid at the time of His Excellency's departure His Highness the Maharaja, the Resident, Feudatory Jahagirdars, sardars, councillors &c., were present at the station to see His Excellency off.

H. H. the Maharaja of Indore's visit to Kolhapur.

30. The Kolhapur town manifested great enthusiasm in according a hearty welcome to Their Highnesses the Maharaja and Maharani Saheba of Indore who for the first time paid a visit to Kolhapur. The Principal Railway stations on the state line were profusely decorated and as soon as the special by which Their Highnesses travelled steamed in on the morning of the 12th April 1914, His Highness Shri Shahu Chhatrapati Maharaja accompanied by his brother, several leading sardars and officials, received the guests with due honour and the distinguished guests marched in grand procession on elephants through the streets of Shahupuri to the station bungalow. The streets were decorated with fine arches and buntings. The townspeople showered flowers on Their Highnesses while passing through the streets.

31. During his sojourn here His Highness the Maharaja Holkar witnessed wrestling matches, elephant fighting, took part in social amusements and games, and paid visits to Radhanagari, Panhala and some historical buildings in the town. His Highnes made shikarring excursions near Vadgaon and Alta. Her Highness the Maharani Saheba of Indore accompanied by Her Highness the Maharani Saheb of Kolhapur paid a visit to Ahilyabai Girls' School and was very much pleased to see the needlework, the embroidery on linen &c., and distributed sweemeats to girls A special Darbar was held in honour of His Highness the Maharaja Holkar at the New Palace on the 17th April 1914 where, in the midst of leading Jahagirdars, Sardars and officers, His Highness welcomed His Highness the Maharaja Tukojirao Holkar in these words:—

"Your Highness Maharajasaheb Holkar Bahadur of Indore, sardars, ladies and gentlemen, I have great pleasure on this occasion to express my feeling of gratification at the honour done me and my people by Your Highness by accepting my invitation. Your late father, H. H. Shivajirao, was an intimate friend of mine and I had the pleasure of a cordial visit from him. I am today overcome by feelings of thankfulness for your presence among us by which Your Highness has helped to strengthen old ties. On the present occasion of the Agricultural Exhibition which is the first of its kind which I am holding in my territory, I am extremely obliged to Your Highnesses for participating in the functions and in presiding at the prize-distribution. The success of the Agricultural show is in no small measure due to the part Your Highness and the Maharanisaheba have so heartily taken. During the short stay of Your Highnesses at Kolhapur, You and Your worthy Maharani have won the golden opinions of my subjects by the great interest taken by you in the history of this state, its art, and its agriculture, by the intelligent questions which Your Highness asked when looking over the exhibits. I have to heartily congratulate Your Highness for the intelligent interest and sympathy displayed by Her Highness Maharani Indirabai and for her appreciation of our efforts in the cause of education and specially female education. Her Highness' visit to our girls' schools and the women's hospital and to the religious shrines in and near the capital, has given us great satisfaction. I cannot help complimenting Your Highness on Your Highness' love of manly games such as wrestling and fencing and also shikarring where Your Highness distinguished yourself in pig-sticking. The visit of Your Highness has given unbounded pleasure not only to the host but to all his subjects as well, as indicated by the immense crowds at the station and other places. I have once more to thank Your Highnesses and trust that our friendship may strengthen with time and that I may have an early opportunity of welcoming Your Highness and the Maharanisaheba and the prince Yuvaraj and the princess.

33. Amid cheers H. H. the Maharaja Holkar replied as follows :—

" Your Highness' chief jagirdars, sardars, ladies and gentlemen, I thank Your Highness very cordially for the princely hospitality which has been shown to us, the excellent arrangements that have been made for our comfort and entertainment, and the kind words in which you have alluded to my visit here. When I received Your Highness' invitation to visit your historical capital, I accepted it as it came from a personal friend, but the feelings that prompted that decision on my part had their roots far deeper. The connections between the illustrious house of the " Chhatrapati " and the house of Holkar is too well known to require mention on this occasion. Though times have changed and are changing and our relations have altered, yet I, and for the matter of that every Maratha does, whatever his position in life may be, look upon the representative of this house with loyal and affectionate regard and reverence. I received Your Highness' invitation in that spirit and came here like a man who makes pilgrimage to pay homage to his deity and returns to his native land purified in mind and body, and I may say that I have achieved that object. I came here with fever and I go back not only without it, but stronger and in improved health. People may attribute it to your beautiful climate, but I know that it is due to the pleasure, I have experienced in being under your Highness' roof and the lavish care that has been expended for my comfort and enjoyment."

"Among the interesting things that it has been my good fortune to see here, I cannot refrain from mentioning the Agricultural Exhibition which I visited with your Highness and where your Highness asked me to distribute prizes to the successful competitors Considering that it is its first year, I think it was a great success and I hope it will be an annual event in your Highness' State, and exercise beneficial influence on the peasantry and their methods of cultivation. I am very glad to be associated with such institutions which, thanks to the British Government, are gradually multiplying in this country.

" Wrestling matches, elephant fights and pigsticking have also contributed greatly to my entertainment and I can assure Your Highness and Her Highness the Maharani Sahiba, that we have enjoyed every moment of our stay here and shall look back on this visit with feelings of unbounded gratitude for Your Highness' generosity and kindness. I hope this visit will give a fresh lease to our old and never-to-be-broken ties and will be followed by a visit of Your Highness to my State where I shall consider it a great privilege and honour to receive you."

6. The Kolhapur Industrial and Agricultural Exhibition.

34. The exhibition which was held at Kolhapur from 8th April 1914 to History.

16th April 1914 was an important event of the year. During the regime of the Council of Administration a Horse and Cattle show was annually held at Chinchli in the Raibag Mahal. Owing to various difficulties, the show had to be given up. The Raibag Mahal in which the village Chinchli is situate is mainly a Canarese district, detached from the rest of the Principality and the show would not attract visitors from all parts of the State.

Object.

35. His Highness' anxiety and his untiring efforts for the welfare of his subjects and to ameliorate the condition especially of the Kolhapur ryots are too well-known to need mention. Exhibitions being one of the means towards this end, it was decided during the year under report to revive the old institution and hold annually an Industrial and Agricultural Exhibition at Kolhapur at the time of the Jotiba fair which attracts many people from Southern Maratha Country, surrounding British Districts and remote parts. It was decided to make the exhibition as instructive to the artizans and agricultural classes as possible.

Opening Ceremony.

36. Mr Robertson, the Political Secretary to the Government of Bombay was touring on this side at this time His Highness invited him for the opening ceremony of the Exhibition. He very kindly accepted His Highness' invitation and arrived here on the morning of 8th April from Ichalkaranji through motor. In the evening a Darbar was held in a shamiana specially erected for the purpose on the Exhibition ground. All sardars, mankaris and officials were present. At 5-30 P M. when His Highness accompanied by Mr. Robertson and Lieut. Colonel F. W. Wodehouse, C. I. E., the Resident arrived near the Darbar tent, all rose and remained standing until His Highness and Mr. Robertson had taken their seats. Then, the Diwan, by command of His Highness, read His Highness' speech as follows:—

Mr. Robertson, Col. Wodehouse, Chiefs, Sardars, ladies and gentlemen.

"I have to thank you most heartily, Mr. Robertson, for your kindly taking the trouble of coming over here to open the Exhibition. It was my long cherished wish that you should once visit my capital and I am the more grateful that your visit should have come off on such an occasion. I am aware you have undertaken this trip by way of change from your continuous desk-work at the Secretariat and in asking you to take part in today's function, I am encroaching on what you no doubt looked forward to as a short interval of rest. I therefore, appreciate the more your kindness in consenting to open this Show. This is about the first of its kind in my State since the abolition of the Agricultural Exhibition at Chinchli, which, owing to various difficulties, had to be given up. It is my intention to make this Show an annual fixture if our efforts this time meet with a fair measure of success. I know this is not quite the pleasantest time of the year here; but I have purposely selected it as it affords special facilities for combining instruction with amusement and attracting a large number of people to our Show. This is the time when thousands of people repair to this place to render homage to the celebrated shrines of Jotiba and the Goddess Ambabai that have contributed in the main to the halo of sanctity that surrounds this place. The Mahomedans too have at this time celebrations in honour of their saint Babu-Jamal. I, therefore; considered this to be the most appropriate time to hold an Agricultural Show. The Jotiba fair is mostly attended by the agricultural classes and it is mainly in their interests that this show has been organised. The learned Principal of the Rajaram College Mr. Darby and his assistants have besides arranged a small conversazione which will no doubt draw the literary classes also. In addition, other amusements for the entertainment of the masses have been provided in order to make the show sufficiently attractive.

I am only sorry that my joy on this occasion is marred by a painful incident to which I cannot refrain from making a reference. I mean the dastardly act of some miscreant who has defaced the statue-busts of the late King Emperor Edward VII of revered memory and the beloved Queen-mother Alexandra. It has caused me deep sorrow. Let me, however, assure you that no efforts shall be spared to unearth the culprit and with the sympathetic help I am receiving from Colonel Wodehouse I hope to trace him.

This being the first year, the number of our exhibits is but limited and naturally our Show is a modest one. It is, however, large enough to give people an idea of the agricultural produce on this side, the kinds of live-stock reared by the farmers, the implements of husbandry, new and old, and the modes of using them.

I would take this opportunity of publicly thanking Dr Mann and his assistants who have given whole-hearted help to make this Show a success as far as it could be made in the short time before them. My thanks are specially due to Dr. Mann whose advice we have to seek now and then, which he always gives with the greatest alacrity. I am grateful also to Messrs. T. R. Kotwal, G. B. Patwardhan and B. S. Kulkarni who have taken the trouble of coming over here all the way and giving us the benefit of their experience and knowledge by lectures and practical demonstrations. As in all such matters the burden of work has fallen on my brother Shri. Bapusaheb who, as Secretary of the Exhibition Committee, has spared no pains to carry out my object which, I trust, by God's grace, may be fulfilled.

With renewed thanks for your kindness I now request you, Mr. Robertson, to declare the Exhibition open.

Mr. Robertson in reply said:—

Your Highness, Ladies, and Gentlemen.

It is true that I have come here for a short respite from the hard work of the Secretariat, but I have also come to pay a visit to Your Highness in your own historic capital and let me assure Your Highness that it would always give me the greatest pleasure to do any service to assist you.

I feel much honoured in being asked to open this Show, which I am glad to learn, is proposed to be an annual fixture. It seems a wise arrangement to hold the Show at this season of the year when so many people are likely to be in the town, so that a wide circle of the agricultural classes can avail themselves of the lessons that are to be learned from the exhibits and the demonstrations that are attached to the Show.

The efforts that are now being made to introduce improvements into the agricultural of the country will bear good fruit and it is only fitting that the head of the Marathas of the Presidency should take a lead in this work seeing that the bulk of the peasantry of the Deccan are his clansmen.

I will not refer to the painful incident to which Your Highness has alluded more than to say that the vast majority of the people of this town are thoroughly ashamed of the miscreant, whoever he may be and utterly disown and detest the motives whatever they may be, that inspired his disgraceful action.

I am glad that Your Highness has found such willing workers in your brother Shrimant Bapusaheb and Dr. Mann and all the others you have mentioned. I am sure that they, like myself, are only too happy to assist in any way they can a Chief who is atonce so loyal to his friends, so upright in action and thought and so sincerely devoted to the promotion of the welbeing of his subjects.

I have now the greatest pleasure in declaring this Show open and in expressing the wish of every one present that it may be a thoroughly successful annual fixture."

37. The exhibition was then declared open and Mr. Robertson and the guests went round the exhibition and examined many of the exhibits.

38. The exhibition was divided into three sections:—

Classification.

(1) Cattle (2) Agriculture (3) Art and Industries.

39. The number of animals admitted was 674. The number of Agricultural products was 1,996 and that of Industrial exhibits was 1,690.

Judging committee.

40. Committees of experienced gentlemen were appointed to adjudicate prizes under different sections Cattle Judging Committee was assisted by two Veterinary Surgeons, Mr. Sawardekar and H. N. Ghatge.

H. H. the Maharaja Holkor's visit to the Exhibition.

41. His Highness the Maharaja Holkar of Indore also graced the occasion by his presence. His Highness accompanied by His Highness the Chhatrapati Maharaja arrived on the morning of the 13th April and after witnessing the various sports provided for his amusement went round the Exhibition and asked many intelligent questions regarding the exhibits. His Highness purchased some of them that were for sale.

Prize distribution ceremony.

42. His Highness the Maharaja Holkar, being requested to preside over the prize distribution, gave his consent and in the afternoon a Darbar was held in a Shamiana. All sardars, mankaris and officials were present. After His Highness Maharaja Holkar and His Highness the Chhatrapati Maharaja had taken their seats and the report of the exhibition was read, His Highness distributed prizes to successful exhibitors.

Prizes.

43. According to the Prospectus the amount notified for prizes to cattle was Rs. 708. But the judges were so well satisfied with the exhibits that they paid 1,064 Rupees as prizes under this head. Prizes amounting to Rs. 170 were awarded to agricultural products and Rs. 180 to those belonging to the art and industries section. Besides these prizes, 30 silver medals and 30 bronze medals were awarded to competitors according to the merits of the exhibits.

Lectures.

44. In order to make this Exhibition as useful as possible, lectures were delivered in the Exhibition yard on improved methods of cultivation, preparation of different kinds of manures &c.. The services of some of the agricultural graduates of the Agricultural College Poona were lent by the Director of Agriculture and Dr. Harold H. Mann for the above purpose, for which the Darbar offer their sincere thanks. Their thanks are due also to Mr. T. R. Kotwal asstt. judge Ahmedabad for his interesting and instructive lecture on the cultivation of lac, tapioca and singada (trapa diapiuosa.) His Highness is trying the experiment of tapioca cultivation on a large scale with a view to provide food for the jungle tribes in the ghats that live on roots and tubers for the greater portion of the year. The result of the experiment is watched with great interest.

Receipts & Expenditure.

45. The total receipts from the sale of tickets including the grant of Rs. 4,000 by His Highness amounted to Rs. 5,508; out of this Rs. 1,750 have been spent on prizes under different sections and the balance was expended in preparing show ground, erecting sheds, making roads, lightning, publishing advertisements in newspapers, laying out water pipes, making sanitary arrangements &c..

46. At this time a Scientific conversazione also was arranged in the Rajaram College Kolhapur

Scientific conversazione.

47. The number of scientific instruments and pieces of apparatus was 464 and that of demonstrators was 121. The apparatus were grouped according to the subject they illustrated. Each branch of science was entrusted to two or three assistant teachers who carefully studied it. To help them, demonstrators were appointed from among High School and College students A clear statement, expressed in the simplest possible language, of the important laws of nature, was written out and stuck up on pieces of card-boards. This enormously helped the spectators in understanding the principles illustrated by the experiments.

48. The proceeds from the sale of tickets amounted to Rs. 123-8-0 and the total expenditure incurred was Rs. 709. His Highness was pleased to grant Rs. 1,500 to meet the expenses of this scientific conversazione.

Visitors.

49. The total number of persons including men, women and children who visited the Exhibition and scientific conversazione was about 30,000.

50. The success of the Exhibition was due mainly to the untiring industry of Meherban Pirajirao (Bapusaheb) Ghatge, C. I. E., C. S. I., brother of His Highness and Jahagirdar of Kagal Senior, who as secretary of the exhibition worked day and night with zeal and energy to carry out His Highness' wishes.

51. The Exhibition being the first of its kind in the capital town of the Kolhapur Principality attracted visitors and exhibits beyond expectation, although the issue of the Prospectus was rather late.

52. Another noteworthy event of the year was the grant by His Most Gracious Majesty the King-Emperor conferring on Rao Bahadur R. V. Sabnis, Diwan of Kolhapur, the dignity of a Companion of the Most Eminent Order of the Indian Empire. He had the honour of receiving the badge at Delhi at the hands of His Excellencyt he Viceroy, Lord Hardinge. The honour was greatly appreciated both by His Highness and the public as is evidenced by the number of addresses received by the Rao Bahadur at meetings held by different sections of the community,some of which His Highness graced by his presence as a mark of his appreciation.

Anniversary of the Delhi Darbar of 1912.

53. On the 12th December 1913 a meeting of Professors, School masters and students was held in Rajaram College Hall. The proceedings of the meeting opened with the singing of the National Anthem and the Kolhapur Darbar Anthem in Marathi, all present standing. This President then read a paper on the subject of loyalty and deep devotion to British throne and proposed three cheers for His Majesty King Emperor and three cheers to His Highness the Chhatrapati Maharaja which were very heartily responded to by all present. The ceremony terminated with the distribution of sweets to students. The same proceedings were observed in the vernacular schools by the Educational Inspector Kolhapur.

54. The day was observed as a holiday in all schools throughout the State.

7. General Review.

55. In the first week of June there were scattered showers. In the second week, there was fairly good and widespread rain which materially improved the condition of the crops raised in the preceeding month and generally stimulated the Kharip sowings. Thereafter there was a break of about a week's duration. Afterwards till the end of July there were rains off and on which fairly secured the Kharip crops. The result was that the Kharip crops were in good condition The August rain was sufficient for the sowing of Rabi crops in the eastern parts but the fall in the months of September and October being scanty and untimely the Kharip as well as Rabi crops suffered to some extent. The prices of staple-food grains remained high in harvest days and consequently the rayats could pay off State dues easily. There was a decrease in the number of crimes and also in original civil suits. Cattle disease prevailed in some parts of Raibag Mahal, but the type was not severe. On the whole the agricultural stock was adequate and in good condition. The condition of the cultivating and labouring classes was good. Artizans and weavers did well. Mortality showed a slight decrease and the birth rate showed a slight increase. There was a decrease in the number of students learning marathi while there was an increase in the number of students learning English. On the whole, educational returns exhibit a slow and steady progress.

2. The King Edward Agricultural Institution.

6. This institution was started in 1912 with a view to introduce improved methods of agriculture and to popularise them among the rayats of the Kolhapur State. In order to accomplish this object, an agricultural demonstrator has been appointed during the year. His duty is to travel in the Kolhapur State and to demonstrate things to farmers.

7. In November last he went to Gadhinglaj and by making trial of iron ploughs, harrows and hand hoes in the field, he satisfied the farmers as to the superiority of the improved implements. He also explained to them the use of different kinds of manures to different crops.

8. The institution has as a first step undertaken to introduce the following things :—

(i) Improved implements, such as iron ploughs of different patterns, hand hoes, iron petharies, maize corn sheller &c. .

(ii) Fertilizers and concentrated manures; such as sulphate of ammonia, nitrate of soda, safflower, castor and karanji cake for irrigated crops.

(iii) Improved single and double furnaces for boiling sugarcane juice.

(iv) Selected seeds of different varieties.

9. The institution has purchased some improved implements and they are given on hire at a very low rate to farmers.

10. 50 copies of " Shetki and Shetkari " are purchased and distributed among the rayats. Besides this leaflets issued by the Bombay Agricultural Department are obtained and distributed to rayats from time to time.

11. The institution has no building of its own. The question of a building is under the consideration of the committee of this institution.

12. The total amount collected by way of contribution was Rs. 33,975 which is deposited in the Huzur treasury at the interest of 6 per cent.

13. The expenditure incurred during the year was Rs. 1,337.

14. This institution receives the annual grant of Rs. 1,000 from the Darbar.

3. Plantation.

14. Cambodia cotton was experimented upon in Shirol taluka during the year. The seed of cambodia cotton were tried in 2 acres of land which yielded 5 maunds of cotton (each maund weighing 12 seers). The results were not favourable and it is reported that the soil is not suitable for its growth.

15. Coffee was planted in 4 acres 18 gunthas of land. This year the outturn of the crop was 188 lbs worth Rs. 70 against 336 lbs worth Rs. 126 in the previous year.

16. Cardamom was planted in 1 acre and 22 gunthas of land and its total yield was 99 lbs against 80 lbs of the last year. The amount realised by selling it during the year was Rs. 310 against Rs. 249 last year.

17. The tea plants 24,735 in number covering an area of 10 acres, yielded an outturn of 274 lbs against 279 lbs in the preceding year. The amount derived from its sale was Rs 103 against Rs. 105 last year.

4. Agricultural Stock.

18. Appendix XX shows that there is a welcome increase in the number of all sorts of animals except cows and female buffaloes. Ploughs and loading carts also show an appreciable increase which is a sure index of material improvement in the condition of the agricultural classes.

5. Breeding Operations.

19. There were 319 camels at the close of the preceding year, to which were added 36 born during the year under report, thus bringing the total to 355. Of these 26 died and 6 were given as presents. The total number of animals in camel herds at the close of the year was 323.

20. The number of mules in Vagjai and Raibag Paddocks was 42. Six mares were covered during the year. There were 6 births, 3 being colts.

2. Weather and Crops.

Monsoon.

21. In the first week of June there were scattered showers. In the second week monsoon conditions established themselves everywhere and continued for a week; but almost immediately after, the current prematurely withdrew causing some anxiety. In July the rain was well distributed and it enabled the completion of kharip sowings almost everywhere. The month of August passed away without heavy rainfall; but it helped the standing crops to flourish. In September and October there was little rain. The incessant rains of September and October caused considerable anxiety as the early crops where somewhat discoloured and sealed the fate of late sowings. This year the rainfall was much below the record of the last year and also the average of the past five years. The kharip as well as rabi crops were not therefore in good condition and consequently yielded but a fair harvest. Cotton at first showed great promise; but the heat of October almost ruined the crop.

Temperature.

22. The mean temperature for the year under report was 78° against 76°.6 last year. May was the hottest month of the year, its mean temperature being 69°.83 as compared with 70°.8 of the preceding year. The mean maximum and minimum temperatures were 80°.17 and 57°.5 against 83°.75 and 57°.2 respectively of the previous year. The highest temperature recorded during the year was 100° on 31st May 1913 and the lowest was 46° on 28th December 1913.

1. Outturn of Crops.

23. The following table gives the average outturn of the principal crops by percentages (100 denoting a normal crop; one valued at 16 annas).

2. Prices.

24. Owing to the failure of crops on account of a weak and erratic monsoon, the prices of food stuffs remained high during the greater part of the year under report, there being slight fluctuations of an unimportant nature; but towards the close of the year, the tightness of the market was relaxed except in the case of gram and groundnuts which showed some upward tendency. Jwari was sold at a somewhat lower rate at the close of the year; while rice kept up the same rates for the last two years. Fodder was sufficient to meet the requirement of the agricultural population and it was sold at fair prices during the year. The rise in prices is partly due to the facilities of transport and communication provided by the net work of railways and telegraphs which link up the country and tend to levelling and steadying prices by the transport to centres of demand of surpluses in fertile tracts.

3. Wages.

25. The rate of masons, carpenters and ordinary labourers varies in different localities and at different times; but at Kolhapur itself the remuneration of masons, carpenters and blacksmiths did not fluctuate much from the level at which it stood last year, viz. 12 annas a day while the rate of ordinary labourers ranged from 5 to 7 annas. The labourers were able to find sufficient employment near their homes.

3. Trade.

26. The quantities in maunds of commodities for the year 1913 exported from and imported into the state by means of the Kolhapur State Railway are shown in the subjoined table:—

4. Imports.

27. Among the imports salt shows a considerable increase of 8,195 maunds over the last year's figure which is chiefly due to the rise in prices in the previous year. Next come the metals with an increase of 7,666 maunds during the year. The third place is occupied by the coal in which an increase of 5,743 maunds is returned. The great demand for raw cotton stimulated by mill industry accounts for an increase of 5,174 maunds. The import of kerosine oil increased from 54,684 maunds to 58,007 maunds while that of spices decreased from 17.352 maunds to 10,372 during the year. On account of timely rainfall for the growth of fodder and the river side grass not being damaged by the floods of the rivers last year, the yield of both grass and fodder was abundant. Therefore the import of fodder considerably dropped from 82,053 maunds to 3,648 maunds during the year.

5. Exports.

28. Turning to exports, there is an appreciable increase under cleaned cotton, oilseeds, jagree and tobacco. There was a brisk trade in cotton, groundnut and jagree owing to their great demand in foreign markets and other adjoining places, where they were largely exported, resulting in an appreciable rise in their prices in this country.

6. Manufacture and Industries.

Spinning and weaving Mill.

29. Owing partly to want of funds, Shri Shahu Chhatrapati spinning and weaving Mill was closed in November 1913.

Oil mill.

30. Shri Yuvaraj Maharaj oil mill continued working during the whole year.

Ginning factories.

31. There were 6 ginning factories in the State. All of them worked for 3 months only during the year. This year the yield of cotton crop was poor, so the managers did not get plenty of cotton for the consumption of their factories.

Grinding machines.

32. The number of grinding machines increased from 5 to 7 during the year. All these machines had sufficient work throughout the year.

Groundnut factories.

33. There were 11 factories in the State. Of these 10 were at Shahupuri and 1 at Gadhinglaj. All of them worked for three months during the season of groundnuts.

Water pumps.

34. The number of water pumps was the same as last year viz. 2. One of them is working by oil engine and the other by steam engine. 28 acres of land are irrigated from the water of the river during the year. These pumps are kept in use for 8 months during hot and cold weather only.

Saw Mill.

35. Shri Shiwaji Maharaj saw mill started by Datar and Co. of Ichalkaranji at Shahupuri continued working during the year; but it is reported that the result is not very satisfactory.

Weaver's Association at Raibag.

36. As mentioned in the last year's report the local industry is receiving a fresh stimulus from the attention paid by His Highness the Chhatrapati Maharaja by sanctioning the establishment of Shri Shahu weaver's association at Raibag. Considerable encouragement has been given to the weavers towards the improvement of their stuff and the result has been that they can now turn out nice varieties of cloth, sadis, susi, khanas, dhotars &c., which are finding a market outside Kolhapur.

7. Forest.

Area.

37. There was a slight increase in the area of reserved and protected forest during the year. The area of reserved forest increased by 1,500 acres and that of protected forest by 125 acres. The increase is due to the settlement of Bolavi village in Gadhinglaj taluka.

Offences.

38. There were altogether 81 forest offences reported during the year against 70 of the last year. Of these one was sent for trial before a magistrate and the rest were disposed of under section 46 of the forest rules. The total amount of fine imposed during the year amounted to Rs 995 against Rs 1162 in the preceding year. Out of the total number of cases 56 were from Bhudargad taluka and Radhanagari mahal and the rest belonged to Karvir, Alte and Gadhinglaj talukas. There was no case at all in Shirol taluka.

Fires.

39. There were in all 8 fires and the area affected was 68 acres during the year against 303 in the previous year. The estimated damage caused by these fires amounted to Rs 11 against Rs 29 in 1912.

Freee grants.

40. Free grants of timber to the value of Rs 1,435 were made during the year.

41. No new plantations were made during the year but those raised in previous years are generally doing very well. Owing to unfavourable season the tea plantation at Nandgav did not fare well.

42. The total collection of Hirda crop was 20,758 khandis against 6,691 of the preceding year. The income derived from sale increased from Rs 63,768 to Rs 1,97,512.

44. The above figures will show that the financial results of the forest department are very satisfactory. The increase in the revenue was due to the exploitation of major and minor forest produce and the large sale of hirda during the year.

6. Public works.

45. The total expenditure on Public works during the year was Rs 3,38,053 against Rs. 3,00,429 during the last year, of which Rs. 2,07,050 were spent on original works, Rs 40,672 on repair works, Rs. 26,286 on establishment charges and Rs. 1,498 were spent for the purchase of tools and other articles during the year against Rs 2,04,705, Rs. 46,979; Rs. 28,787 and Rs. 19,958 respectively in the previous year. The increase in expenditure during the year was due to some of the miscellaneous works costing Rs. 62,548 which were carried out during the year.

46. No new roads and bridges were constructed during the year. The amount spent on repairs was Rs. 26,704 against Rs. 16,288 in the previous year.

1. Water works.

Rs. 200 were spent on repairs to the tank during the year. No water from Attigre and Wadgaon tanks was given for irrigation during the year. The tank at Shirol was given in charge of the Shirol Municipality during the year.

7. Irrigation.

48. As mentioned in the last year's report, the big project of the Radhanagari tank work is carried out under the direct supervision of Shri Pirajirao Bapusaheb Ghatge C. S. I., C I. E, Jahagirdar of Kagal Senior. The establishment consisted of 5 supervisors, 15 clerks, 5 accountant clerks &c.. The expenditure incurred during the year amounted to Rs. 2,07,968 and the total amount ~ent from the commencement of the work was Rs. 6,94,076

47. About 9,12,977 cubic feet of masonry were constructed during the ar, the total from the beginning of the work being 24,54,589 cubic feet. The tal number of masons and labourers working on all the various branches of the works was the same as last year viz. 3,100.

48. Mr. B. P. Jagtap L. C. E, M. R. S I., was appointed as Executive Engineer in charge tank works during the year.

CHAPTER .V—FINANCIAL REVIEW.

1 General.

1. As during the last year the Dewan continued to be in charge of this department throughout the year. He is assisted by the Daftardar (account branch) who at first examines all sorts of bills and accounts excepting those relating to the Public Works Department and J. G. Technical School and then submits them to the Diwan's office for payment or adjustment. The accounts of the Public Works Department and J. G. Technical School are examined by the Auditor in the Diwan's office. The final accounts of the State are complied by the Daftardar from the monthly sheets received from the Huzur treasury and from the yearly accounts received from Taluka treasuries. The monthly and quarterly accounts of Kolhapur Darbar with British Government are also checked by him. Amounts of pensions to be given to retired servants of the State are calculated and fixed in his office.

2. Orders of cash payment issued during the year on the Huzur and Taluka treasuries were 3,262 and 1,054 against 3,417 and 1,336 in the previous year respectively. Adjustment orders to be made in the Huzur and taluka treasuries numbered 241 and 202 against 262 and 149 last year respectively.

3. At the beginning of the year the number of pensioners was 533. Thirty-eight new pensions were sanctioned during the year and 48 ceased through death, thus making the total of 523 pensioners drawing an aggregate amount of Rs. 49,645 at the close of the year. Of these 234 were military pensioners drawing Rs. 16,496 a year. The number of civil pensioners was 123 and the amount of pension received by them during the year was Rs. 25,154. Persons receiving maintenance allowance by way of charity numbered 166 and the amount paid to them was Rs. 7,995.

4. The total receipts and disbursements including adjustments amounted to Rs. 39,57,876 and Rs. 41,12,756 during the year against Rs. 39,56,708 and Rs. 35,93,687 in the preceding year respectively. The cash balance in the treasury at the end of the year was Rs. 19,47,668 inclusive of G. P. Notes.

5. On 1st January 1913 the state had a balance of Rs. 25,609 with the Bank of Bombay which was raised to Rs. 65,879 by 31st December 1913. The investment in Government paper amounted to Rs. 14,01,200 in the last year and through additional purchases the amount was raised to Rs. 15,14,200 during the year. At the beginning of the year the amount of fixed deposit was Rs. 3,00,000. Rs 2,00,000 were withdrawn during the year.

9. Loans given by the Darbar to land-holders and others amounted to Rs 47,923. The amount of interest due by them was Rs 6,674, of which Rs 887 were collected during the year.

7. The interest earned by the State on fixed deposits, Government Promissory notes and loans during the year is as shown below:—

Interest on fixed deposits.....	Rs.	3,192
Do. on G. P. Notes	„	24,484
Do. on Loans	„	887
	Rs.	28,563

8. The sub-joined table shows the financial condition of the State at the close of the year as compared with that of the preceding year:—

Year.	Assets.			Liabilities.	Net assets of the year.
	Cash.	Debts due including amount to be adjusted	Total.
	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.
1912-1913	23,54,152	43,57,201	67,11,353	17,39,245	49,72,108
1913-1914	21,17,166	48,48,031	69,65,197	19,38,257	50,26,940

2. Gross Revenue and Expenditure.

1. Gross Revenue.

9. The gross revenue of the current year amounted to Rs. 62,58,205 which showed a fall of Rs. 1,34,544 from the last year's figure and the net revenue of the year came to Rs. 25,37,000 showing a decrease of Rs. 10,800 only This decrease was the result of an increase of Rs. 1,24,000 chiefly seen under the heads Excise (50,000) Land Revenue (16,000) Railway (21,000) Registration (9,000) Jail (4,000) Miscellaneous (18,000) Public Instruction (6,000) and a decrease of Rs. 1,34,800 under the heads Forest Revenue (93,000) Kurans (7,800) P. W. D. (4,000) Law and Justice (5,000) Extraordinary receipts (25,00) which is nominal being not brought to account during the year. The rise under Excise is due to larger receipts from still-head duty, that under Land Revenue to the recovery of outstandings of former years, that under Railway to increasing traffic, that under Registration to larger sale of stamps and collection of registration fees, that under Jail to more receipts from prison labour, that under Miscellaneous to realization of interest (8,000) on loans given to land-holders and nazarana (10,000) from Himmat Bahadur and that under Public Instruction to receipts from college and school fees. The shrinkage under Forest Revenue was due to the dwindling down of the out-turn of Hirda crop on account of excessive rain of 1912 which caused considerable damage to Hirda fruits No grass from state kurans was sold during the year, hence the decrease under kuran. The interest on G. P. Notes for the half year only was brought to account this year, hence the decrease under Extraordinary receipts. The decrease under other heads being very small needs no explanation.

2. Gross Expenditure.

10. The gross expenditure increased from Rs. 59,81,384 to Rs. 65,03,330 showing a total increase of Rs. 5,21,946 over the last year's figures. Of this 5 lacs were on account of an increase in advances. The system of making advances from the treasury is receiving attention of His Highness the Chhatrapati Maharaja and efforts are being made to recover or adjust the advances made in previous years. The net expenditure of the year shows also an increase of Rs. 2,00,355 which is due to more amount spent on original works by P. W. D during the year under report. The rise in expenditure under the heads Khasgi (38,500) Religions charges (16,500) Revenue (20,000) repair works (89,000) was counter-balanced by a decrease in expenditure under the head Miscellaneous (1,64,000) mainly due to the expenses of the Delhi Darbar during the preceding year.

3. Cash Balance.

11. The cash balance amounted to Rs 21,17,166 against Rs. 23,54,152 in the previous year. It consisted of :—

Cash in Huzur and Taluka treasuries	6,12,774
Government Promissory Notes.....	14,01,200
Fixed deposit in the Bombay Bank	1,03,192
Total Rs.	21,17,166

3. Land Revenue.

12. Including arrears of former years of Rs 6,36,277 the total demand on account of land revenue was Rs 19,73,754 against Rs 19,50,400 in the previous year, of which Rs 13,20,806 were collected during the year against Rs 13,05,592 last year leaving a balance of Rs 6,45,383 at the end of the year. The remission granted to rayats during the year was Rs 7,565 against Rs 8,533 in the preceding year.

4. Sayar Revenue

13. The sayar revenue is developing remarkably, as in spite of the effects of the scarcity which prevailed in the Kolhapur state, there was a further increase of Rs. 52,850 over the previous year's income. From a fiscal point of view, the results are satisfactory. They are doubtless due in part to a distinct advance in material prosperity of the people. Kolhapur.

PRINTED AT THE "JAINENDRA" PRESS,

KOLHAPUR.

1915.

In rounding off figures in several places fractions exceeding one-half have been reckoned as equivalent to one and those equal to or less than one-half have been left out of consideration; in consequence, a slight discrepancy may sometimes occur in additions and subtractions, especially in the case of sums of money.

5. Important Events.

16. The first intimation of the outbreak of war between Great Britain and Germany was received on the 5th of August 1914. On the 6th His Highness sent the following telegram to His Excellency the Governor of Bombay:—

17. "Respectfully offer my cordial sympathy and support to Government in the present war crisis and would be happy to place at the disposal of Government the whole resources of my state and my own personal services should necessity arise." His Highness received the following telegram in reply from the Government of Bombay:—

His Excellency thanks His Highness most warmly on behalf of Government for loyal and devoted offer of which advantage will be taken when the need arises."

On the 14th September 1914 a meeting of leading merchants and citizens was held at the old Palace under the presidency of His Highness. The Diwan in a lucid speech explained the situation in connection with the war and said that there was no doubt that in the end the British arms must come out victorious. But in the meantime it was necessary to observe patience and forbearance. He exhorted all present not to give credence to false rumours and to prevent any unnecessary panic occurring among the ignorant masses. He also explained the nature of the war and the necessity for assisting the cause of suffering humanity. Resolutions were adopted offering prayers for the success of the British arms, opening a branch of the War Relief Fund in Kolhapur and appointing a Committee to invite and collect subscriptions His Highness subscribed Rs. 20,000 to the Bombay Branch of the Imperial Relief Fund.

18. At the invitation of Her Highness the Maharani, a similar meeting of Kolhapur ladies was held on the 8th September 1914 in the old Palace under the presidency of Mrs Wodehouse, when the objects of the Women's Branch of the War Relief Fund were explained and a local committee was appointed to collect subscriptions.

19. It is very gratifying to note that in connection with this Fund no sort of pressure had to be used; contributions were spontaneous mainly due to personal identification with the great cause.

20. The Relief Fund amounted to Rupees 40,729 and the same was remitted to the Bombay Branch of the Imperial War Relief Fund. The subscriptions of the women's branch of the same Fund amounted to Rs 5,743 in cash and a number of sewn and knitted articles worth Rs, 458 These were forwarded to Bombay.

6, Kolhapur exhibition.

21. The prevalence of the European war affected more or less the material advance of the British Empire including Native States. Therefore the idea of the Show Committee was at first to stop holding the exhibition this year. But His Highness was pleased to decide that the exhibition, being an annual fixture, should be held. Thereupon the committee, finding that there was no sufficient time at their disposal to carry out the whole programme, dropped the art and industrial sections of the last year's prospectus and resolved that only cattle and agricultural show should be held this year.

22. Exhibits began to arrive from the 1st of March till the end of the month and animals were admitted from the morning of the 31st March 1915 till the noon of the next day, when the work of adjudging prizes commenced.

23. The number of animals admitted was 215, of which 72 were awarded prizes amouting to Rs 1,210 The number of agricultural products was 460 of which 178 articles received prizes amounting to Rs 340.

24. The admission to see the exhibition was free to all.

25. The expenditure was Rs. 2,416. Besides this Rs 1,500 were distributed as prizes to successful wrestlers.

26. His Excellency the Governor of Bombay accompanied by Her Excellency Lady Willingdon and staff arrived here on 2nd May 1915 by motors from Mahableshwar for his shikar trip. The next morning Their Excellencies and staff left Kolhapur and reached the shooting camp which was situated in a picturesque vally near the western ghats. On their way Her Excellency Lady Willingdon stopped for a while to see the dam and waterworks of Shri Maharani Laxmibai tank works at Radhanagari.

27. His Excellency had a fine bag of one big tiger measuring 10 feet in length and weighing 280 lbs, one panther and two bears Mr Crerar shot two bisons and captain Rigby shot one. The four day's shooting was a huge Success which was mainly due to the excellent arrangements made by Meherban Pirajirao Ghatge C. S. I. C I. E Jahagirdar of Kagal Senior and brother to His Highness the Maharajasaheb.

28. On their way back to Kolhapur Their Excellencies halted at Radhanagari to witness an elephant fight. Their Excellencies and staff left Kolhapur for Mahableshwar on the 8th May 1915. Their Excellencies and staff were highly pleased with all the nice and thoughtful arrangements made at the shooting camp.

7. General Review.

29. The monsoon set in rather late, after the middle of June. It gave good rain almost everywhere during the second week and enabled lands to be prepared for sowing. A break followed lasting for 5 or 6 days and rain was again received in the last week of the month affording sufficient moisture for kharip sowings which were rapidly in progress everywhere Light showers during the first week of July favoured healthy growth of crops in a marked degree. But a disastrous and almost continuous downpour prevailed throughout the State from 8th July to 7th August resulting in unprecedented floods causing heavy and widespread damage to river side crops and washing away houses making many a cultivator homeless and destitute. Fortunately no loss of life and cattle occurred. The kharip crops were ruined by the excessive rains. Owing to the total absence of rain in the month of October, the rabi crops suffered to a great extent. On the whole the season proved unpropitious for cultivators. The outbreak of war caused moreover unfavourable fluctuations in prices, sepecially for cotton and groundnuts, which are the chief exports from this State. However the supply of fodder and water was sufficient. There was an increase in the number of horned cattle. The birth rate showed a slight decline and the death rate showed a slight increase owing to the prevalence of plague which was more virulent than in the previous year and was the chief cause of the high mortality. There was a fall in the number of crimes and civil suits. Registration transactions also decreased in number.

The battalion is a well set up and efficient looking body of men They drill extraordinarily well and show that steadiness on parade which is the hall-mark of good discipline. The officers and non-commissioned officers know their work and the excellent results obtained are undoubtedly as much due to the sharp and decisive manner in which orders are given, as to the alertness, quietness and steadiness of the men in executing them. A few weeks training with modern rifles and across country should render this fine battalion fit for active service. "

2. It will be seen that in the year of report the area under Jwari decreased by 6,505 acres and that under paddy by 28,080 acres The area under wheat increased by 4,100 acres and that under pulses by 12,140 acres The area under kharip sowings was left unutilised on account of heavy and continuous rainfall in the months of July and August, which proved beneficial to Rabi sowings and hence an increase in the area under Rabi crops. There was an increase of about 2,000 acres in the areas under cotton while there was a decrease of about 4,000 acres in the area under tobacco. The area under sugarcane cultivation during the year under report was 16,980 acres against 15,440 acres in the previous year. This increase was largely due to the ground being fully saturated with water owing to more than normal rainfall in 1913, which maintained a continuous and plentiful supply of water in the wells.

Irrigated area.

3. The irrigated area of the State proper was 32,469 against 29,926 acres in the previous year showing an increase of 2,543 acres during the year, of which 25,383 acres were irrigated from the water of wells, 7,062 acres from that of rivers and 24 acres from that of tanks.

Water supply.

4. The number of Pacca wells decreased by 47 while that of kachha wells increased by 23 during the year. The figures for the last year were 10,895 and 1,309 respectively.

2. The King Edward Agricultural Institution.

5. As mentioned in the last year's report, demonstration work in connection with improved methods was carried on during the year. The use of oil cake, fish meal and sulphate of ammonia as manures and salt water method of selecting seed were demonstrated in connection with the cultivation of sugarcane, paddy and jwari Demonstrations of jagree boiling by Poona furnace were held in the places during the year and the results achieved were encouraging.

6. The agricultaral demonstrator visited some villages in Shirol taluka and by making trial of iron ploughs, harrows and hand hoes in the fields, he satisfied the farmers as to the superiority of the improved methods.

7. Different kinds of manures and seeds were procured and distributed by this institution to farmers for trial.

8. The expenditure on this institution came to Rs 1,343 against Rs 1,337 last year.

9. This institution receives the annual grant of Rs 1,000 from the Darbar.

3. Special Plantations.

10. Combodia cotton occupied 6 acres of land which yielded 100 lbs of lint in Shirol taluka. It is reported that the soil is not suitable for its growth.

11. The area covered by coffee plantations was 4 acres & 18 gunthas as last ear.

12. Cardamom was planted in 1 acre and 22 gunthas and its total was 68 lbs against 99 lbs of the last year. The price of the produce was Rs 212 against 310 last year.

14. It was arranged to try an experiment for lac production. For this purpose 2,500 pits at a distance of 8 feet from each other were dug and filled with soft earth and kept ready for planting tapioca cuttings, in the Radhanagari Mahal, which were brought from Travancore during the year. 2,200 cuttings were planted with the result that almost all of them have taken root.

2. Weather & Crops.

Monsoon.

18. In the second week of June the monsoon made its appearance but the current being weak and erratic, it was not till the end of that month that monsoon conditions were fully established everywhere. It therefore could not afford sufficient moisture for kharip sowings which however made considerable progress by the end of the month. The rain in the first two weeks of July being timely and sufficient enabled the kharip crops to flourish. From the middle of July till the end of August the rain being very heavy and above the normal checked the progress of kharip crops to a great extent. The riverside crops were damaged by the high floods which lasted for more than a fortnight or so. The Rabi crops were in a blooming condition in the month of September, but the later rains being not timely checked the progress to some degree. The total rain fall was much above the average of the last ten or fifteen years. The General character of this year's season may be considered fair on the whole.

19. The highest rainfall recorded in the State was 80.96 inches at Bavda and the lowest at katkol being 25.15 inches. The greatest rainfall in 24 hours was at Bavda where 9.27 inches were gauged on the 25th of July 1914.

May was the hottest month of the year, its mean temperature being 69°.58 as compared with 69°.83 of the preceding year. The mean maximum and minimum temperatures in the shade were 80°.9 and 62°.6 against 80°.17 and 57°.5 respectively. The highest temperature recorded during the year was 101° on 22nd May 1914 and the lowest was 44° on 25th December 1914. The figures for the last year was 100° on 31st May and 46° on 28th December respectively.

22. The prices of food grains fluctuated lightly in some localities, but in general maintained the high rates of the previous year, jwari was sold at a somewhat lower rate while rice kept up the same rates of the previous year. The price of gram and wheat ruled higher than in 1913 owing to their demand in foreign markets. The price of tobacco rose by 25 percent as the later rains did great damage to the crop. During the year there was no demand for cotton and groundnut owing to the outbreak of war and their price fell down. Though the outturn of jagree was better than last year its price advanced by about 25 percent indicating a greater demand for the same.

9. Wages.

23. The scarcity of labour in the State has again been very marked and wages show a continued tendency to advance. Not a single taluka reports a fall in wages and the majority report a rise. The rise in rates was chiefly attributed to scarcity of labourer and the high prices of food-grains.
